Robbers Kill Winnipeg Bank Manager Federal Conversion Loan to Be Offered Monday Magistrate Comments On Argument of Counsel In Sweepstake Case

Thugs Rob Manitoba Capital Bank, Slay Man and Make Escape

Four Bandits Surprise Staff of Dominion Bank Branch in Winnipeg; One of Them Shoots P. B. R. Tucker Because He Fails to Put Hands Up and He Dies in Hospital; Police Searching for Outlaws and Their $6,500 Loot

Winnipeg, May 8.—Bank Manager P. B. R. Tucker was shot and fatally wounded here today by bandits who held up and robbed a branch bank of the Dominion Bank of Canada of an amount estimated at between $6,000 and $7,000. Mr. Tucker died of his wounds about a half hour after the robbery had been committed.

Three armed men suddenly appeared in the bank building, situated at the corner of Sherbrooke and Notre Dame Streets, at 10:15 a.m. With guns leveled, they commanded members of the staff to throw up their hands and the request was complied with by all except Mr. Tucker, who evidently did not hear the order.

One of the trio fired at the manager several times and he fell to the floor. The bandits then coolly proceeded to gather up the money and rushed out to a waiting automobile, the motor of which had been left running by an accomplice.

SEEN BY TWO
The robbery was witnessed by two persons other than the members of the bank staff. A window cleaner, working on the windows of the bank, saw the entire scene, and a woman, passing the bank at the time, saw the hands of the staff members in the air. She immediately telephoned the police from a neighboring store.

The robbers worked swiftly, evidently on a prearranged plan. After the holdup they entered the auto standing at the curb, and drove east on Notre Dame Street and south on Furby, toward Fortage Avenue.

The bank branch had been open only a few minutes when the robbers entered. Ordering the entire staff to throw up their hands, two of the gunmen went to the back of the office and vaulted the counter while the third member of the gang climbed over the counter at the front.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL
Mr. Tucker, the manager, was walking toward his office when the robbers appeared on the scene. Rather than of hearing, he evidently did not understand the command or did not hear it. The third robber immediately opened fire, wounding the manager twice in the stomach. He was taken to the Winnipeg General Hospital immediately, but died shortly after his arrival.

MAN KILLED BY BANDITS WAS HOLDER OF M.C.

Major P. B. R. Tucker, killed by a bank robber in Winnipeg this forenoon, leaves two sons in British Columbia. Geoffrey Owen Tucker of Vancouver and Lewis Ord Tucker of Cook Street, Victoria. In Winnipeg he leaves a widow, who was his second wife, and two young daughters of nine years and two years.

He served overseas with the 31st Calgary Battalion with the rank of captain and was decorated with the Military Cross for bravery. It is probable that indirectly his war service resulted in his death. He was deaf as the result of being under heavy gunfire in France, and probably did not hear the warnings of the bank bandits.

OTTAWA HEARS OF PROPOSED FRASER BRIDGE

Ottawa, May 8.—Conflicting views regarding the proposed island bridge over the Fraser River at the mouth of the New Westminster, B.C., harbor, were given before a committee of the House of Commons today. It was contended by representatives of New Westminster that the bridge would be a menace to navigation and would jeopardize the investments of the city made in port and wharfage facilities. Representatives made by Vancouver, North Vancouver, Delta, Richmond and other communities here that the bridge was a necessity to the growth of the Fraser Valley and would not prove to be a menace to river navigation.

Because of the many representations made, it was necessary to adjourn the hearing until next Tuesday, when rebuttal evidence will be presented by some of the parties.

The question will be settled finally by the cabinet, which was represented today by three members, Hon. H. A. Stewart, Minister of Public Works; Hon. Alfred Durand, Minister of Marine, and Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

SCULLIN CABINET WINS BY TWO VOTES

Canadian Press Cable Via Reuters' Canberra, Australia, May 8.—Once more extremists within the Labor Party, whose policies have repeatedly been rejected by Premier James Scullin, came to the aid of the government today and the government was sustained by two votes in the division on the United Party's no confidence motion.

The division resulted in a government victory by thirty-four votes to thirty-two. The voting came only a day after the official entry into parliament of the new United Party; a combination of all opposition groups under the leadership of Hon. Joseph Lyons, who, until last December, was one of the Labor Prime Minister's chief lieutenants.

BRITISH LIBERAL CHAIRMAN QUILTS

London, May 8.—Colonel Charles Kerr today announced his resignation as chairman of the executive committee of the National Liberal Council. Col. Kerr said he was out of sympathy with the majority of the party's present policy and the party organization supporting the present government.

NEW DOMINION LOAN TOTAL TO BE $250,000,000

Bennett Tells Commons Books of Conversion Issue Will Be Opened Next Monday

Will Be Closed Not Later Than May 23; Advertisements in All Daily Papers

Ottawa, May 8.—The Dominion Conversion Loan, 1931, will be offered to the public next Monday in all parts of Canada. The subscription books will remain open at the discretion of the Minister of Finance, but not later than May 23.

This announcement was made by Premier R. B. Bennett in the Commons this afternoon.

"The advantages of the conversion of the government bonds presently falling due into a new long-term loan are twofold," the Prime Minister stated. "It will remove from the business horizon a dark cloud which every finance minister has to meet when heavy borrowings are impending. The second is that since the expiring bonds are largely held by Canadians, the acceptance of four and a half per cent interest at the expiration of the bonds they are to turn in, one per cent lower than the old bonds carried, will indicate a faith and belief in their country and be a striking testimony of their confidence in the future of their country."

The present intention was to float $250,000,000. It was entirely a conversion loan. No new money was being asked for, the Prime Minister explained. The holders who turned in their bonds would receive the current interest rates until the bonds would have expired on the 1st of January, 1932, and a half per cent thereafter. The new bonds would be subject to taxation, both as to principal and interest.

Every daily paper in Canada would carry details of the new loan next Monday.

GREAT SUMS
Loans approaching maturity in the near future, the Prime Minister said, were $53,000,000 on October 1, 1931; $73,000,000 on November 1, 1932; $44,000,000 November 1, 1933, and $311,000,000 November 1, 1934. The interest on the 1931 maturity was 5 per cent, and on the others 5½ per cent a year. The total amount was $1,000,000,000.

EXPERT STATES VICTORIA NEEDS SEAPLANE BASE

Pilots Hesitate to Carry Passengers in Land Planes Over Water

Victoria's need of a seaplane base is emphasized in a letter received this morning by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce from Harold Cray, manager of Chicago publicity and advertising for the Boeing companies, who will speak at a joint meeting of the tourist group and the Chamber of Commerce membership Monday.

Mr. Cray has just reached Seattle from Chicago and Detroit, and although he has not been in touch with Victoria's campaign for a seaplane base his letter refers to the necessity of one here. He writes as follows: "Our people here feel while a land base is desirable in Victoria, the most necessary terminal in Victoria is a base for amphibians and flying boats, as the responsibility for the operation of all air transportation lines of the continent and the bearing these services have upon the development of commerce. His remarks on Monday will be of special interest as in view of the order of October, 1930, which prohibited importation of galvanized iron and steel plate and sheeting.

Auto Driver Escapes Horrible Death After Collision With Train

Harry Buckle Jr., of Saanich, Sustains Only Minor Injuries When Car Hits Freight Train at Lake Hill and Bursts Into Flames; Throws Himself From Wrecked Auto as Fire Envelopes It

With the front crushed, the hood, door and stanchion on the left side torn off and the chassis a mass of debris from flames, a wrecked automobile at Royal Oak mutely testified to the miraculous escape from death of Harry Buckle Jr., Old West Road, early this morning.

Buckle was reported resting comfortably in the St. Joseph's Hospital. He suffered only a burned leg, lacerations to his nose and a bruised face when his car struck a southbound C.N.R. freight train at the Lake Hill crossing on North Quay Street at 2:30 o'clock.

The car burst into flames immediately after the crash. By instinct, rather than judgment, Buckle threw himself out of the car and escaped to safety.

SAVED FROM HORRIBLE DEATH
"If the train had not torn the door off he would have had a horrible death," Chief Allan Rankin of Saanich said.

B.C. INDIANS AT WORK MAY PAY NEW TAX

New Westminster, May 8.—Hon. J. W. Jones, Minister of Finance of B.C., stated today that the imposition of the one per cent income tax on Indians working in canneries or in competition with white employees in other lines of industry had been taken up by the Department of Finance with the Indian commissioner at Ottawa. He added Indians remaining on reserves would of course be immune from the tax if arrangements were made to tax those employed away from the reserve.

It is stated the Indians will strongly oppose being taxed.

CHINESE COMPLY WITH EDICT ON STRONG DOORS

Former Gambling Joints Remove Bars; Open to Police Inspection

Following an edict issued by Chief of Police Thomas Healey a week ago, strong doors on premises in Chinatown against which gambling convictions have been recorded in the past, have been removed. Chief Healey and Inspector John T. Beutien yesterday visited all the places concerned and found the order had been complied with fully.

"It is not our wish to persecute the Chinese for gambling," the Chief said this morning. "In the past, however, there has been considerable criticism of police actions in hacking through doors with axes to reach gambling joints. In the future this will not be necessary."

It is the first time in many years that gathering places and club premises for Chinese have been without barred doors. "We have given orders that if gambling becomes bad in Chinatown, the place will be raided just the same. Removal of strong doors will facilitate police inspection, however, and in the event of raids will obviate the necessity of breaking through barriers and causing damage which would be necessary under other circumstances," he said.

Seven premises are affected by the order, although two of them are not in use at the present time.

NEW ZEALAND DESIRES CANADA TRADE AGREEMENT

Canadian Press Cable via Reuters' Wellington, N.Z., May 8.—Negotiations are still proceeding between New Zealand and Canada with a view to solution of the tariff difficulties between the two Dominions, Premier G. Fine of $100 Each Imposed on Two Defendants in Sweep Case in Police Court; Although Countenanced Here for Years is Contrary to Criminal Code, Magistrate Points Out; Cannot be Taxed Under Existing Situation; No Suggestion of Fraud in Local Drawing

Says Province Not Instigator In Sweep Cases

Attorney-General Pooley this morning denied the suggestion that prosecution of local sweepstakes operators was part of a concerted move by provincial officials against sweeps. Victoria police had acted independently of his department in the matter and he had nothing whatsoever to do with the handling of such cases by municipal police in the province, he said.

With an expression of opinion that, if sweepstakes were to be permitted, it should be under Government supervision and management, Magistrate George Jay this morning, in the City Police Court, imposed a fine of $100 each on Charles A. Steele and E. A. Morris Ltd., who had pleaded guilty through counsel to a sweepstake charge.

The magistrate gave a review of the case for and against sweepstakes, pointing out that while it was common knowledge the Salmon sweepstake has operated for years there had never been any suggestion of fraudulent operations in connection with it.

"The accused," he said, "are charged with conducting a scheme for determining the holders of what tickets are winners of property to be disposed of in simpler terms, of conducting a sweepstake. They have elected summary trial and pleaded guilty."

"It is common knowledge that this is the Salmon Sweep, which has been carried on for some years and, so far as I know, as pointed out by counsel yesterday, has always been honestly conducted. Nevertheless it is a breach of the Criminal Code."

"Mr. Moresby suggested public opinion favors the operation of sweepstakes, as indicated in correspondence and editorials in newspapers, but I don't know about that," the magistrate continued. He said that correspondence could not always be taken as a true expression of public opinion since some people wrote to the papers on any subject whatever whether they knew anything about it or not.

"It is not for me to say whether or not it is in the public interest for sweepstakes to be held. It is my duty to enforce the Criminal Code. It is apparent that sweeps cannot be permitted without an amendment to the code. "In my opinion if sweepstakes are to be permitted they should be carried out under government management or government control and supervision. To allow the operation of sweeps by anyone would open a way for more fraud and trickery than any other method. That, of course, is only a general opinion and does not in any way cast a reflection on the present case. NO SUGGESTION OF DISHONESTY.

"This present sweep has been permitted for some time—why, I do not know. But if my memory serves me right parties connected with the same sweep were before me and were fined some years ago. Having in view, however, the standing of the people and (Concluded on page 2)

If Second Chamber Adopts Lemieux Plan Ministers Will Occasionally Speak

At Present Robertson Is Only Minister in Senate; Others Sit in Chamber

Ottawa, May 8.—Notice of a motion which if agreed to would constitute a striking departure from the practice of the Parliament of Canada has been placed on the order paper of the Senate by Senator Rodolphe Lemieux, Liberal, former Speaker of the Commons.

The text of the resolution is as follows: "That in order to expedite the business of Parliament, ministers of the crown should be permitted to appear from time to time before the House for the purpose of explaining and giving information with respect to government legislation."

Under the present rule only those ministers who are members of the Senate may address the Senate. Senator Robertson, Minister of Labor, is at present the only minister who is a Senator. All the others sit in the Commons.

NON-PENSIONERS SEEKING PREFERENCE IN POSITIONS

COURT HEARING AFTER DEATH

Of Two Young Men Before Westminster Magistrate, Jury Exonerated One

New Westminster, May 8.—Hearing in the case of George Neilson, New Westminster, and J. G. Millicamp, Vancouver, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Audrey Goss, April 23, was adjourned today in the City Police Court until May 12. It is understood a further adjournment until May 19 will be made. Neilson was blamed by the verdict of the coroner's jury Monday for the automobile accident in which Miss Goss lost her life. Millicamp was exonerated.

Finding of the coroner's jury was as follows: "We find the accident was caused by an automobile driven by George Neilson, colliding with a car driven by J. G. Millicamp, that driven by Millicamp being responsible for the death of Audrey Goss, but we attach no blame to Millicamp."

"We find that the car driven by George Neilson was being driven at an excessive rate of speed and was directly responsible for the accident."

"We recommend that a thorough survey be made of the city streets and, definitely, arterial streets be signed in the city."

New Ex-Service Organization Claims Some Pensioners Getting Double Pay

Preference for non-pensioners over those receiving substantial pensions in securing government positions is asked by the Victoria and District Unit, Non-pensioners of the Great War Welfare Association, in letters forwarded to Premier R. B. Bennett, Premier S. F. Tolmie and D. B. Flunkett, M.P. The organization which consists of returned men not in receipt of pensions, was formed here recently and has headquarters at 564 Yates Street. The resolution embodying this plea was passed at a meeting Wednesday night. The communication to Premier Bennett sets forth at length the arguments of the non-pensioners against retention in government service of ex-servicemen who are in receipt of substantial pensions and who also get good salaries. They men, it is claimed, are receiving double pay and should relinquish either their pensions or their jobs.

WOULD GIVE EMPLOYMENT

The non-pensioners claim that if this policy were carried out, it would help to relieve the unemployment situation. The organization, it is pointed out, consists of men who were discharged from the army and navy and who have not put the country to any expense. They claim Canada owes them some reward.

In addition to asking for preference over those who receive substantial pensions, the non-pensioners are also asking for free hospital and medical attention as accorded to pensioners.

Weir Speaks, But Farmers Still Call For New Policy

Maiden Speech of Minister of Agriculture in Commons Is Review, Not Forecast; Wheat Market Problem Unsolved, Says Vallance

Ottawa, May 8.—The Commons heard the maiden speech of the Minister of Agriculture yesterday, completed what had come to be known as the "agricultural debate" and took a vote, which stood 107 to 61.

The speech of Hon. Robert Weir, awaited for some time, was a review of his activities since he became Minister of Agriculture.

Voicing the demand of the opposition that Mr. Weir announce without further delay the details of the government's policy for agriculture, John Vallance, Liberal, South Battleford, Sask., later said:

"The most important thing for the farmers of the west-to-day is markets for wheat, and he never touched it."

BOOMBASTIC CONTINUES
The sooner the new agricultural policy of the government was brought down the better, asserted C. R. McIntosh, Liberal, North Battleford, Sask. "Until you do bring it down we are going to boombast it."

OUT OF THE HOLE
"What the west wants is to get out of debt, not further in the hole," said Dr. T. K. Donnelly, Willow Bunch, Sask., speaking of the $25,000,000 freight loan scheme for mixed farming on the prairie.

Quebec Case Is Argued At Hearing On Radio

make two trial shipments of cattle of different types to the market in the Old Country. These cattle were shipped in a manner and with a view to creating interest for other shipments. Test shipment of cattle to Great Britain had been the best advertisement Canadian livestock could have. Mr. Weir declared. While in all cases results were not as encouraging as had been hoped, some cattle had obtained a price in England of $3 a head higher than they would have received on the domestic market. Furthermore, the outward movement had a steady effect on prices here. Reports indicated that in the local market cattle were selling at least one-half cent higher as a result of the overseas shipments.

GRAIN AS FUEL

Recently, said Major Weir, experiments had been carried out to the end of encouraging cattle feeding among farmers who ordinarily were grain growers. Results of the experiments had shown that by feeding cattle farmers would receive the equivalent of $1.15 a bushel for wheat and 83 cents a bushel for barley.

One of the most difficult problems was that of obtaining markets. Restrictions in Great Britain had had an adverse effect on exports of Canadian cattle. The announcement of the restrictions a few months ago had been followed by a statement in the press that there were 100,000 cattle available and the market was glutted. The effect of this statement had been to unsettle minds of western cattlemen, although Mr. Weir said his own declaration in the matter had to some extent counteracted it.

BUTTER SITUATION

Mr. Weir said that, realizing an emergency had been present in connection with butter, the cabinet had decided on an eight-cent per pound duty on imports under the British preference, and in addition verbal arrangements had been made with Australia and New Zealand not to export butter from those countries for sale in Canada at less than thirty-two cents a pound. When the Conservative government had come to power, Canadian butter was selling in world markets below the price of that from the Antipodes. The condition had been promptly corrected and within a few weeks ago Canadian butter had been bringing a premium.

Canada was not yet on the export market with butter, the minister said, but probably would be in another three weeks or a month. The suggestion had been made that all Canadian butter entering the London market should be labelled as coming from this country, but there was difficulty because, Mr. Weir said, "we have in Canada a buttermilk industry enough to have a label put on it." Canada had not had enough production of select butter to enter seriously into competition with Denmark's butter, but the industry had been encouraged by a policy of providing high quality brood sows to the farmers as cheaply as possible. A similar policy had been put into effect to promote better blood stock.

CREDIT FOR FARMERS

The need of credit was great in the west, the minister said, and during his speeches in Montreal and Toronto he had made the statement that if the banks would not extend more loans to the farmers, some way would be found to see money was provided.

Ten days later he had had conferences with ministers of agriculture in the prairie provinces. Relief in the way of financial help for farmers had been discussed and an offer had been made by the Dominion Government. It was agreed it would be unwise to make public the nature of the offer. If members in the opposition benches knew how generous that offer was, the minister said, they would blush for the attitude they had shown in the debate.

Mr. Weir said he realized the policies he had listed would not bring immediate relief to the farmers. He realized the extent of the load of mortgages and debt being carried, but that load was not put on since last August, the minister said.

SPEAKS WITH BITTERNESS

He hurled some bitter remarks across the floor at opposition members. There was the city of Prince Albert, a city which had the record that it would never turn anyone from the doorsteps, he said. When a "political" came there several years ago from Eastern Canada, Mr. Weir continued, directing his attention toward the Liberal leader, King. "They took him," he said. "Now that gentleman had fooled himself on a generous people for 'permanent board,' said Mr. Weir, who added he would warn him not to expect continued support from the people of that riding.

Speaking of Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Liberal, his predecessor as Minister of Agriculture, Mr. Weir said the only constructive suggestion Mr. Motherwell had made while in office was in regard to the eradication of cutworms.

As the minister sat down he was greeted by a prolonged burst of applause from the Government benches.

John Vallance, Liberal, South Battleford, Sask., was the next speaker. "After listening to the words of the Minister of Agriculture," he said, "the people of western Canada will be left with the same impression they got after the Prime Minister's speech on December 30."

"The minister said he was not a politician. After listening to his speech I am convinced he is a better politician than he is an agriculturist."

"The most important thing for the farmers of the west to-day is markets for wheat, and he never touched it," Mr. Vallance continued. "Perhaps he did not have time in his forty minutes, but he took the time to castigate a man whose shoes he is not worthy to buckle" (Hon. W. R. Motherwell).

No man in western Canada had made a greater contribution to agriculture than Mr. Motherwell, said Mr. Vallance. He was not only a great agriculturist, but he was one of the greatest pioneers in the movement to organize the farmers. He was the father of the old Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association, from which had sprung all the other farmers' organizations down to the Wheat Pool. All these were due to the first steps taken by Mr. Motherwell.

WHEAT POOL PLAN

Mr. Vallance urged the government to take steps to establish a 100 per cent wheat pool or restore the wheat board of former years. "We are completely out of the wheat crop had been demonstrated," he said, by Premier Bennett, who, earlier in the debate, had said the government had prevented a crash in the wheat market by coming

Supreme Court of Canada at Ottawa Reserves Decision on Dominion-Provincial Radio Control

Ottawa, May 8.—Presentation before the Supreme Court of Canada of argument by counsel on the reference to determine whether the provinces or the dominion should control radio broadcasting in Canada was concluded late this afternoon. The judgment of the court on the important question will be announced at a later date, the decision being reserved.

Ottawa, May 8.—The building and operating of radio transmitting and receiving sets are property and civil rights belonging to all citizens, Charles Lanctot, K.C., counsel for Quebec, argued to-day before the Supreme Court of Canada here. It was the third day of the reference before the court to determine whether the provincial legislatures or the Dominion Parliament should control radio broadcasting.

Since it was a civil right to use radio equipment, the only authority competent to limit or regulate the exercise of that right by a citizen was the provincial legislature, said Mr. Lanctot.

Furthermore, Mr. Lanctot continued, the space above the soil, under the law belonged to the owner of the soil to some extent. But in so far as it was public property it came under the control of the Legislature of the province. "We say," he continued, "whether the space or air or ether above the soil be public or private property, the only authority competent to authorize the passing of laws over the land is the provincial legislature."

POSSIBILITY OF DAMAGE

It was an established fact, he went on, that radio waves could penetrate walls and go through houses. This was an invasion of private property. While no damage was caused by waves at present, it could easily be imagined that with developments in radio equipment and with the creation of stronger waves, property might be injured. The provincial Legislature as the custodian of property and civil rights was the only authority which could prevent that.

Claiming there was a close similarity between radio and aviation, Mr. Lanctot asked the court to apply to it the same rule it had laid down in the reference on aviation a year ago. In that case the court refused to recognize the Dominion claim to exclusive control of the field of aviation. It was held the operation of airplanes was primarily of property and civil rights, although in the larger field of international and interprovincial aviation the Dominion had certain rights.

Many operations in one province, he said, were of a provincial character, and an effect in another province. Mr. Lanctot argued. This was no reason for limiting provincial control because radio waves passed out of the province.

WARNINGS MENTIONED

"When our fleet went into the South Pacific," said Mr. Justice Newcombe, "we were told the Germans jammed the wireless. They prevented our ships from communicating with their fatherland by interference. Do you say you should have the right to jam Ontario's wireless?"

In case of war, said Mr. Lanctot, "I am prepared to admit the Dominion should take control of all radio. The Dominion has power to do this under the act."

"It is not only in case of war," said the judge. "It is a question of the province unintentionally or intentionally interfering with radio in another province."

With regard to the Dominion's obligations to fulfill international treaties, Mr. Lanctot said the Dominion was not required to enact legislation to fulfill the treaty in respect to a provincial matter unless the province failed to do so.

Commanding the other members of the bank staff to lie on the floor, the marauders scooped all available cash in sight and fled with their loot.

Police, who by that time had been notified of the robbery by the woman passersby, were quickly on the scene and immediately arrested a druggist over the entire city. Provincial Police in various parts of the province also were communicated with, and were on the lookout.

Members of the staff on duty at the time in addition to Manager Tucker were Douglas J. Tyson, C. W. Wilson, teller, and Helen McLeod, stenographer.

LEO BROTHERS, CHICAGO, GIVEN PRISON TERM

Chicago, May 8.—Leo V. Brothers was denied a new trial for the murder of Alfred Lingie, Chicago Tribune crime reporter, and was sentenced by Judge Joseph Babash to-day to four years in prison.

Brothers' attorneys were given sixty days to file a bill of exceptions in preparation for an appeal.

to the aid of the wheat pools. "The one thing the west needs is markets for wheat, and when this government makes it difficult for goods to come into this market, it is made just that much more difficult for the west to sell its wheat," said Mr. Vallance.

"When you restrict us from selling by buying, you restrict us from selling. The first thing the Minister of Agriculture should do—buy, now and seed policies are all right—is to find markets for wheat. The west wants to him and to the government for that."

NEW MEASURES NEEDED

Urgent steps were needed, Mr. Vallance proceeded. Premier Bennett had declared his government had saved wheat from dropping to 40 cents a bushel. "Surely, if he could do that, a man of his ability should be able to raise them 20 cents at least."

As a final word, Mr. Vallance made a personal request to Mr. Weir to "use above the plutocrats sitting around you in the cabinet and stand up for the rights of the farmers."

Mr. Man!

.... this concerns someone you think the world of!

SOMEONE especially near and dear to you is probably wondering whether you'll forget all about her next Sunday! We thought you'd appreciate a reminder because we know just how much a man hates to forget Mother's Day. And further, we believe we can be additionally helpful by suggesting an ideal way of expressing your sentiments on Mother's Day. Imagine how much you'd delight that mother of yours (who's uppermost in your thoughts) with a gift of something beautifully smart to wear from Mallek's! Perhaps a coat, a suit, hat, dress or fur. Nothing would please her more! And right now we're offering wonderful Mother's Day Specials throughout the store. (The best way is to give her Mallek's Scrip and enable her to choose exactly what she likes best.)

McRAE NOT IN B.C. POLITICS

Returning to Vancouver, He Says He Will Not Join Re-organized Cabinet

Vancouver, May 8.—Major-Gen. A. D. McRae says he will not enter politics in British Columbia. He has not the slightest desire to do so.

This was his declaration to-day on his return here from an eight months' tour in Europe.

During the last several weeks Gen. McRae has been freely mentioned in connection with suggested cabinet changes at Victoria, and this week his name appeared in press dispatches from Ottawa in connection with the British Columbia political situation.

"I wish to make it quite clear that as far as I am concerned I am out of the political picture in British Columbia," he asserted. "Under no circumstances would I consider entering into politics here, as has been suggested in various newspapers recently. I wish to give as unequivocal a denial as possible to any such rumor in order there will be no misunderstanding regarding any action I will take."

VOICES SURPRISE

Gen. McRae declared he was astounded his name should have been mentioned in press dispatches from Ottawa regarding provincial aspirations.

"I have been at Ottawa for several weeks and was available to newspapermen there. They could have obtained knowledge of my intentions at first hand," he said. "Hon. S. F. Tomlin, the Premier, was also in Ottawa and correspondents could have obtained the same information from him. From what I have read in the newspapers there is some dissatisfaction existing within the Conservative Party in British Columbia. However, the place to iron out such things is not the public press, but with executives behind closed doors. If I have advice to offer, it is that political victories are only won by unity. Such steps as are necessary to foster unity should be taken at once."

ROBT. DOLLAR'S CONDITION IS NOW CRITICAL

San Rafael, Cal., May 8.—Dr. R. G. Duffley issued a bulletin shortly before noon to-day saying Capt. Robert Dollar, eighty-seven-year-old head of the Dollar Steamship Lines, who lives here, was in a critical condition.

Captain Dollar was suffering from pyelitis, Dr. Duffley said. It was an outgrowth of the pelvic and kidney ailment which made an operation necessary some weeks ago.

Capt. Dollar's temperature was announced as 99, his pulse 104 and his respiration 20.

AUTO DRIVER ESCAPES HORRIBLE DEATH AFTER COLLISION WITH TRAIN

ich commented, "Only this saved him from being burned alive."

Buckley's car struck the third car from the rear on a train composed of eighteen flat cars. He was on his way home from work at The Daily Colonist at the time.

As he approached the crossing, he related afterwards, he suddenly saw the flat cars ahead, moving slowly across the road. The engine was cut off sight, around a corner in the track.

Just before the impact he swung to the right and the car plowed into the side of a flat car. Crushing the front and ripping out the side, the train swung the light coupe completely around on the road, then tossed it aside.

Immediately a column of flame shot up from the wrecked car. The gas tank was split in the crash and broken electric wire short-circuited and ignited.

Dashed, but still conscious, Buckley threw himself out of the hole in the side of the car, where the door had been, but not before the flames had touched one leg.

Train men hearing the crash, stopped immediately and came back to his assistance. A C. and C. ambulance took him to the hospital, where he was attended by Dr. W. G. Graham.

Chief Rankin and Constable P. K. Cummings took charge at the scene and had the wrecked car removed to Royal Oak.

Fire department apparatus was called to extinguish the burning car.

NEED GOVERNMENT CONTROL IF SWEEPS ALLOWED

the fact that no suggestion of dishonesty has been made, I think a moderate fine will meet the case.

"Although Mr. Morency has suggested a $50 fine as imposed in other cases elsewhere in Canada, this is hardly sufficient," the magistrate concluded, commenting that large sums of money were handled by the sweep operators and that it was impossible to test the operations, so that they were no source of revenue to the government.

The question of disposing of the sum of $12, seized by police in the raid on premises of the accused, was deferred. City Prosecutor C. L. Harrison said he would take it up with the Chief of Police.

Merced, Calif., May 8.—Six school children, from eight to ten years old, lay dead here to-day and another child and a man were in a critical condition after a school bus carrying about sixty students was struck by a freight train at a crossing here yesterday.

NEW DOMINION LOAN TO BE $250,000,000

ing in the next three years was $1,083,000,000.

It would be observed, continued Mr. Bennett, that nearly $1,000,000,000 would fall due in November, 1933, and November, 1934. These loans would have to be paid or renewed, but payment was almost impossible except through the flotation of new securities.

TO ANTICIPATE MATURITIES
At the moment, said Mr. Bennett, "this large sum of money is a serious impediment to large undertakings because it is felt that as long as these sums have to be met in successive years, there will be a great demand for money and increasing difficulties in connection with the handling of such transactions."

The government felt it was desirable to anticipate the maturity of these obligations, and had therefore established the Dominion Conversion Loan of 1931.

No new money was being sought. The new securities would bear the interest rate of 4½ per cent, although the interest of the former securities would remain intact until their maturity.

LOAN COMMITTEE

"High I say that before taking steps in this matter the government was fortunate to set up a general committee, of which the chairman is Sir Charles Gordon, and the vice-chairman, Victor Drury of Montreal. Other members are S. L. Logan, general manager of the Bank of Commerce; W. M. Wilson, general manager of the Royal Bank of Canada; A. McLeod, general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia; and Beaudry Lemay, general manager of the Banque Canadienne Nationale.

"The bond houses are represented by Mr. Bennett, by A. F. White, of the Dominion Securities Corporation; H. R. Machado, of A. E. Ames and Co., and E. G. Hanson of Hanson Brothers. Mr. Spivey of the Bank of Montreal has also given unwillingly to these transactions, and has undertaken large responsibilities."

The conversion involved the active co-operation of forty-five agencies throughout Canada. Mr. Bennett went on, including representatives of chartered banks, bond dealers and brokers. It was important that on the same day the same opportunity should be afforded to all those interested to procure the new issue, therefore the material would be available on Monday next in every part of Canada.

The first conversion would amount to $250,000,000 of old securities. It was proposed that the Minister of Finance should have discretion as to the closing date, but in any case the period for receiving subscriptions would close on May 22.

Answering a question asked by Mr. King, Liberal leader, the Prime Minister said that while the taxation-free provisions of the old securities could not be interfered with up to maturity, the new issue would—following the maturity of the old bonds—not be tax-free.

"In reply to other questions Mr. Bennett said the bonds would be issued for twenty-five years, but callable at the end of fifteen years. The commission to the bond houses would be one-half of one per cent, which would include all expenditures connected with the operation of the loans. There would be no overriding commissions, he said.

STAR DECLINES ROYAL 'COMMAND'

London, May 8.—The London Evening Standard, publishing a purported interview with Charlie Chaplin yesterday evening, said Chaplin had declined to appear on the stage at a "command" vaudeville performance, which may be attended by the King and Queen.

The "command" performances, which are held annually, are selected from the elite or vaudeville talent in the British Isles and most of the artists selected regard the opportunity as feathers in their caps.

"I don't appear in public that way," the newspaper quoted Chaplin as saying. "The last thing in the world I want to do is make stage appearances." The newspaper said Chaplin was sending a cheque instead.

NEW MARKETS FOR WHEAT AND COAL SOUGHT

Buchanan Tells Senate Purchasing Power of Prairies Ought to Be Increased

Ottawa, May 8.—Reduction in salaries of civil servants may be necessary during the present depression, in the opinion of Senator J. J. Buchanan, Liberal of Prince Edward Island, who addressed the Senate yesterday. The reduction should be general and include the Governor-General as well as the lowest-paid office boy. The president and employees of the nationally-owned railway system should also be included, he said.

Senator W. A. Buchanan, Liberal, Alberta, said the one word indicative of Canadian conditions was wheat. If wheat prices could be restored to normal levels, the solution of Canada's economic problems would be possible. The economic welfare of the country depended on the purchasing power of the prairie farmers, and if steps were not taken to increase that power, conditions would become worse.

Irrigated lands in the west might be changed from wheat production to that of commodities not in competition with general agricultural production in the west, Senator Buchanan suggested. The sugar beet industry might be developed, canning factories established and an incentive given to the production of wool.

MARKETS FOR COAL
Unless new markets were found for western coal, the mines would be closed permanently, Senator Buchanan predicted. The industry there was in as acute distress as in Nova Scotia. The miners in Alberta, during the last year, had averaged two days' work a week.

Second reading was given a government bill to appoint two additional directors for the Canadian National Railways.

Appeal Taken On Saskatchewan Grain Pool Act

Regina, May 8.—Leave to appeal direct to the Privy Council in London against the ruling of the Appeal Court of Saskatchewan which declared the Grain Marketing Act, 1931, ultra vires of the Saskatchewan Legislature was granted yesterday afternoon at a special sitting of the Saskatchewan Court of Appeal.

The application was made on behalf of the Saskatchewan Co-operative Wheat Producers Limited by R. H. Miliken, K.C.
By the terms of the judgment the Saskatchewan Co-operative Wheat Producers Limited is required to furnish approved security for costs in the sum of $2,500 within two months and to forward to the judicial committee of the Privy Council in London by August 1 the complete record of the appeal, namely, all papers and records issued by the court, copies of arguments of the various legal actions, and copies of everything else connected with the appeal in order that the Privy Council may have before it the complete record.

THEATRE MONEY TAKEN BY THUG

Vancouver, May 8.—A lone gunman obtained yesterday's takings from the Columbia Theatre here when he held up L. Burde, manager Beverly Apartments, Nelson Street, shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday evening and took approximately $250, according to a police report.

Burde said he drew up in his car to his residence and when he was about to enter the door a small man loitering nearby accosted him. The man, producing a revolver, forced him to get back into his car and then took from his hand a black bag containing the money.

The theatre manager was sent into the door of his apartment and the bandit disappeared.

University Degrees Are Conferred At Colorful Ceremony At Vancouver

Large Attendance Cheers Graduates; Dr. W. C. Murray, President of University of Saskatchewan, Urges Graduates to Take Full Advantage of Opportunities

Vancouver, May 8.—Marking the sixteenth annual congregation for the conferring of degrees at the University of British Columbia, a brilliant and colorful drama was enacted in the Auditorium yesterday when the chancellor, Dr. R. E. McKechnie, conferred degrees on 307 graduates from the faculties of arts and science, applied science and agriculture.

Auditorium Hall, crowded to capacity with outstanding citizens of Vancouver, presented a vivid and striking picture as the procession, headed by Dr. McKechnie and Dr. Walter C. Murray, president of the University of Saskatchewan, marched down the aisles and took their places on the platform.

In their wake, in the scarlet and yellow and blue silks of their degrees, followed the graduates, the recipients of the various degrees, and, in their train, fresh-faced, keen-eyed and serious of mien, came youths and young women who had successfully passed the educational heights.

With the distinguished gathering of university officials, Board of Governors and visitors seated on the platform, and graduates occupying the front rows of seats in the spacious hall, the day's exercises were opened with "O Canada," the swelling volume of the anthem booming through the assembly room and echoing through the halls.

At the banquet the new graduates were welcomed as members of the alumni.

Dr. McKechnie urged each graduate to remain closely affiliated with the Alma Mater, "a missionary looking for advancement of University of British Columbia."

Graduates, he said, should not support political candidates "who have not the brains to realize the value of higher education to the people of the province."

Dr. Murray also delivered the address of the evening. He warned graduates against being discouraged if immediate employment in their chosen fields was not available.

"If the graduate will take what is at hand and do it well, he will succeed," he asserted.

Future of British Columbia, according to Dr. Murray, lies across the Pacific. Graduates, he said, should be interpreters between "the continent behind, and the continent before."

He stressed the value of an international outlook in dealing with problems. He cited "the magnanimity, breadth of vision, and moral grandeur of the British people as qualities that should be cultivated."

The following were elected as officers of congregation: Treasurer, H. H. Morris; secretary, Sherwood Lett; executive committee, Margaret Muirhead, A. E. Lord, W. O. Banfield, Bert Griffin and Bert Barratt.

the university of to-day, and he found cause for gratitude in the advancement.

According to the speaker, this evolution was due to four factors—adoption of Eliot's elective system, application of the laboratory to teaching of sciences, the idea of the state's responsibility for higher, as well as lower education and "the introduction of the spirit and practice of research."

DEGREES CONFERRED
Then came the ceremony of the conferring of degrees. While the names of successful graduates were read by A. S. Mathews, registrar, the recipients of degrees filed down the aisle, up to the platform, where, while they knelt before the Chancellor, their degrees were conferred on them.

Throughout the hour and a half ceremony, the staccato rattle of applause punctuated the solemn reading of the names. Occasionally, as winners of scholarships or other prizes came to the platform, the applause swelled to a roar, drowning out the precise announcements of academic honors.

BRILLIANT STUDENTS APPLAUDED
Malcolm Hayden Webb and Shirley Isabella Mayne, co-winners of the Governor-General's Medal as leaders of the graduating class in arts, were heartily greeted. Similar receptions were given to Idele Louise Wilson of Victoria, winner of the Historical Society Gold Medal; Frank Webster Hallonquist, winner of the Kwantlen Club Gold Medal; and Mary Heribson, winner of the French Government Bronze Medal.

There followed a roll of honor, given by the registrar, and hearing the names of students who captured other prizes and awards in the various faculties. The ceremony was brought to a conclusion by the singing of "God Save the King."

The annual convocation dinner was held in the Hotel Vancouver yesterday evening.

At the banquet the new graduates were welcomed as members of the alumni.

Dr. McKechnie urged each graduate to remain closely affiliated with the Alma Mater, "a missionary looking for advancement of University of British Columbia."

Graduates, he said, should not support political candidates "who have not the brains to realize the value of higher education to the people of the province."

Dr. Murray also delivered the address of the evening. He warned graduates against being discouraged if immediate employment in their chosen fields was not available.

Two Desperadoes Are Taken By Police After Gun Fight

New York, May 8.—Ten thousand spectators yesterday watched police battle for an hour with machine guns and tear gas bombs and eventually capture Francis "Two-Gun" Crowley, youthful desperado, and Rudolph Durlinger, reputed confessed slayer.

The men, together with Helen Walsh, sixteen, were trapped by police on the top floor of a rooming house ignoring commands to surrender. Crowley, whose room contained a small arsenal, kept a big detachment of police at bay. He finally surrendered with his companions after he had been wounded in both legs and the officers had hewed through the roof of the apartment.

Two hours after the arrests, police said Crowley and Durlinger had confessed to two slayings and the wounding of a detective.

Durlinger, they said, admitted the slaying of Virginia Brannan, a fast dancer, in Yonkers. Crowley was claimed to have confessed to the fatal shooting of Patrolman Frederick Hirsch Tuesday evening.

The other shooting victim was Detective George Schaefer, of the Bronx, who trapped Crowley March 14 in an office building.

LABOR WINS BY-ELECTION IN SCOTLAND

Glasgow, Scotland, May 8.—The Labor Party retained its parliamentary seat for the St. Rollox division by a reduced vote in a by-election, the results of which were announced to-day.

SIX SENTENCED AT LIQUOR TRIAL

Great Falls, Mont., May 8.—Six defendants in a rum smuggling ring complaint yesterday were sentenced and fined in federal court here at the case against N. C. Sanford, alleged leader, was continued to the next term of the court. Evidence was presented showing Sanford was too ill to appear.

The ring, the government alleged in its complaints, operated between Canada and the United States. Veril Perry, Jack Wilson and Jack Blair each were fined $100 and sentenced to sixty days in jail. W. E. Harriclow was fined $150 and given ninety days in prison. Perry, Blair and Blair each were given suspended jail sentences and placed on five years' probation. All pleaded guilty to smuggling. Sanford, who had his case continued three times, was in Vancouver, B.C., the court was told.

HOSPITALS HOLD OPEN HOUSE ON TUESDAY NEXT

Jubilee and St. Joseph's Observing Florence Nightingale's Birthday as Usual

Rest Haven to Be "At Home" Sunday; Tea and Music

Tuesday next, May 12, will be observed throughout Canada as National Hospital Day, in commemoration of the birthday of Florence Nightingale, the heroine of the Crimean War and the pioneer of modern nursing. In accordance with their usual custom, the local hospitals will observe the day by holding "open house" in order that the public may avail itself of the opportunity of learning at first hand the steps being taken to keep the institutions thoroughly up-to-date and in the front rank of hospital progress.

The Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital will be open to the public all day on Tuesday, when members of the nursing staff will be on hand to show interested visitors around the various departments and point out the numerous improvements instituted during the last year, particularly in the pavilion and other wards.

St. Joseph's Hospital will hold "open house" on Tuesday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock. An interesting programme of demonstrations is being arranged, and the sisters and nurses will gladly act as cicerones to conduct visitors through the various departments of the hospital, pointing out the many new improvements effected within recent months. Vernon will together with the hospital laundry plant, isolation hospital and power house will also be open for inspection. During the afternoon tea will be served under the direction of the auxiliary.

Following the regular custom on the anniversary of the birthday of Florence Nightingale, the heroine of the Crimean War, Rest Haven will, in common with other hospitals, observe National Hospital Day.

To accommodate friends and visitors from Victoria, Rest Haven will celebrate Sunday afternoon, May 10. The institution will be open to visitors between 2 and 5 o'clock for public inspection.

The nurses will be organized under the direction of Miss Florence Harrison, R.N., the superintendent, and visitors will have an opportunity of seeing the main departments, including the wards, obstetrical department, operating room, X-ray, and the complete suite of ladies' and gentlemen's hydrotherapy rooms. Afternoon tea will be served at four o'clock by the ladies in charge, and concert music will be rendered in the lounge through the courtesy of William F. Tickle, leading his Empress Hotel trio.

MANY SAILORS USE INSTITUTE, REPORTS SHOW

Women Doing Fine Work in Upkeep of Seamen's Institute

Victoria Seamen's Institute held its annual meeting yesterday afternoon in the institute. Superior Street, when the annual reports were read and election of officers took place. The members showed their appreciation of the officers and have guided the affairs of the Seamen's Institute for many years in returning by acclamation the same president and executive as follows: President, Mrs. Alice Thompson; vice-president, Miss Schwartz and Mrs. E. Vernon Thomson; secretary, Mrs. E. W. Sayer; treasurer, Mrs. J. Gordon Smith; house committee, Madame Claudet and Mrs. W. McManus.

NEARLY 5,000 USE HOME

The annual report of the secretary showed the Victoria Seamen's Institute at the end of its nineteenth year of "Service for the Sailor" to be well established in its splendid work for seafaring men visiting this port. The number of registrations for the last year totaled 4,613 men and 352 apprentice boys. The number of ships visited was 223, and free meals and free beds had been provided when necessary.

The wool committee, under its energetic convener, Mrs. Minnis, had used sixty-two half-pounds of wool, turning out 122 pairs of socks, 51 jerseys, 25 scarves and 17 pairs of mitts. These are supplied to seamen visiting the institute, particularly those who have suffered shipwreck and loss of clothing and also those coming out of hospital, and who may be in need of warm seafaring clothes.

HOSPITAL VISITING

Hospital-visiting for the year had been ably carried out by Mrs. Fimmore, who has paid regular visits to St. Joseph's Hospital, with gifts and reading matter; and Mrs. Robinson, who has had charge of visiting the Jubilee Hospital. The Christmas dinner provided by the British Sailors' Society was given on Christmas Day. Thirty boxes were sent to the lighthouses at Christmas and thirty-two boxes of books and magazines during the summer. The Columbia Coast Missions also received fifteen boxes of books and magazines. The annual birthday tea and shower for the lighthouses made possible the sending of these boxes.

Thanking the members of the major Gordon Smith for his interest in having the pictures of the caravan

HOME FOR TIRED WOMEN OPENED

King's Daughters of Vancouver Sponsor Convalescent Home on Mainland

Vancouver, May 8.—With the quiet of an artistically-furnished and well-run home and the blue mountains across the city for inspiration, those women who are privileged to become guests at the King's Daughters' Resthome, will have ample opportunity to regain health and courage for life's battles. Capable of accommodating fourteen now, with easily-arranged additional facilities, the big house is like some wealthy woman's own home. Every care and thought in furnishing and choosing beautiful color schemes and cheery draperies has been expended on this venture by these women who have had this dream for many years.

FOR TIRED WOMEN
Mrs. Herbert Bingham, president of Vancouver District of King's Daughters, said in her address in Resthome, elderly women, weary mothers and tired business girls would be given a chance of recuperation, and those convalescing would receive special care. It is the desire of the King's Daughters to aid humanity, and for many years a convalescent home has been the project toward which these women have worked.

Dr. W. B. Burnett, president of the Canadian Club, officially opened the home, unlocking the big front door and permitting Mrs. Bingham to be the first to cross the threshold.

The proposed working of the project was outlined by Rev. Dr. E. D. McLaren, and Ald. Lambie, representing Mayor L. D. Taylor, assured the women of the co-operation of the City Council in this venture, which he believed would do much to safeguard the social life of the city. Miss Margaret S. Ross, provincial president, spoke of the thin thread which had grown to a rope, many times tangled but at last unraveled, and now the home had become a reality. The dedication of the home was carried out by Rev. G. C. Owen.

Tea was served in the large dining-room, with its flower-laden and taper-lighted tables, and those serving during the afternoon were Mrs. W. H. Bourke, Mrs. T. F. Patterson, Mrs. N. B. Fearnall, Mrs. J. G. MacDonald, Mrs. Sorenson, Mrs. J. Whitton, Mrs. J. J. Crossman, Mrs. Betts, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. C. Tubbs, Mrs. J. McCallum, Mrs. Radcliffe, Mrs. J. Arkley, Mrs. H. Forrester, Miss Vera Lewis, Miss Ethel Wilson, Miss Muriel Stewart, Miss Laura Garvin and Miss Minnie Muir. The house was crowded for several

GET SPRING TONICS FROM GARDEN NOT FROM BOTTLES

In days of old spring brought the inevitable bottle of sulphur and molasses, or the three-times-daily doses of cream of tartar to thin the blood, or some other magic tonic or blood purifier with which mother proposed to repair the ravages of winter. No doubt some improvement resulted, if not physically, at least psychically. There must have been something beneficial in doing anything so disagreeable as to meekly open one's mouth and accept any of these sweetly acid doses.

BRING ON THE VEGETABLES
We do need minerals in the spring. We need to change the diet, which has been satisfying and nourishing us during the cold months. But such medications as the above are as out-moded as the bustle. Nowadays we turn to the products of our sunshiny, spring gardens and in tender young onions, pale green, crinkly leaves of lettuce, in fact, in all the variety of new vegetables we accomplish our rejuvenation.

All that any of us needs to undo the ill effects of heavy, heating, winter diets, and to metamorphose our houseplant complexions, is an abundance of those foods which the home-gardener or the truck-farmer have been so patiently growing. All we need is a diligent adherence to the rule that every meal can with benefit offer either a vegetable or a fruit, or both. Raw fruits for breakfast. A variety of cooked vegetables, and the aforementioned onions and lettuce for lunch, a hours during the afternoon and again in the evening, when visitors inspected the various rooms, on the door of each being a plate bearing the name of the circle providing the furnishings. One room, that of the Pleasant Circle, is "In Memoriam" for Miss Bessie Johnston and Miss Sheeple.

Each circle in the district is represented, either by furnishing a room or by contributing furnishings for various parts of the home. The desk in the office was given by Silver Cross Circle. In memory of the late Mrs. W. H. Steeves. Other circles contributing are Inasmuch, Margaret Bottoms, Whatsoever, Vancouver-Miseph, Dorcas, Fairview, Princess and Fleur-de-lis.

Catholic Women Busy on Many Coming Affairs

Mrs. J. L. Thompson presided at the May meeting of the Victoria Subdivision Catholic Women's League, held yesterday evening in the library of the Bishop's House. Mrs. Service, secretary, and Mrs. Kyle, treasurer, submitted their reports for the month.

Mrs. Burns announced having secured the K. of G. Hall for the annual membership tea and hope chest show to be held Tuesday next, when Rev. Bishop Murray will address the assembly, at 4 o'clock, on the work of the league. Mrs. Cavin will be convener of refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Blair, Reid, Mrs. Mahoney and Mrs. McLennan. Mrs. McManus and Mrs. Sabin will convene the hope chest; Mrs. Hartnell and Mrs. Kyle, the membership, and Mrs. Blair, Reid, finances. The president, Mrs. J. L. Thompson, will head the reception committee, including Mrs. J. D. Kinsinger, Miss H. O'Brien and Mrs. Ebbes-Cavanagh.

Miss O'Brien gave an interesting report of her activities in social service work; and in the report on educational matters, Mrs. Ebbes-Cavanagh referred to the high mark attained by so many students of St. Ann's Academy in the musical festival, and outlined the ceremonies which will take place on Saturday, May 16, in the grounds of St. Louis College at 10 o'clock, and to which all interested in the old school or in the new are cordially invited. A special attraction for the boys on that day will be the candy booth, in charge of Mrs. J. L. Thompson, where a model of "The Spirit of St. Louis" will be competed for. The model plane has been made by one of the St. Louis College boys, Master Paul Trudel.

The First Communion Breakfast, at the kind invitation of Sister Superior, will be held at St. Ann's Academy on May 24, under the patronage of Mrs. M. Hartnell. Mrs. Cavin arranging for transportation. It is expected that the Junior Catholic Women's League will also assist. The garden party in aid of St. Louis College will be held in the garden of the Christian Brothers' Residence, Fernwood Road, at the kind invitation of Rev. Brother Lawrence, on Wednesday, June 27. Mrs. McManus and Mrs. Service will be in charge of the hope chest.

The lights in a crowded bus had failed. "Can I find you a strap?" inquired a tall strap-hanger of a young lady who had boarded the bus at the last stop. "Thank you," she replied, "but I have one already." "Then would you mind letting go of my tie?" said he, shyly.

WOMAN REFUSED ENTRY TO U.S.

Wife of Ontario Tourist Motoring to Victoria Turned Back; Is Appealing

Canadian Press
London, Ont., May 8.—Based on a direct appeal to the United States Secretary of Labor at Washington, Mrs. Emma D. Uhler, hopes to rejoin her husband in the United States within a day or so. Mrs. Uhler was refused with her American-born baby to enter United States.

The Uhler party, in an automobile, started from here for Victoria, B.C., at Detroit, Uhler, an American citizen, was permitted to continue, while Mrs. Uhler was turned back. Mrs. Uhler claims the local consulate told her the non-quota visa was refused because she did not possess $1,000 cash or its equivalent in United States property. Mrs. Uhler was born in Canada. Her husband is a native of the United States.

News of Clubwomen
Knox Ladies' Aid—Members of the Knox Ladies' Aid held their regular meeting with Mrs. Dempsey, vice-president, in the chair in the absence of the president. The business consisted of reading and acknowledging correspondence. It was decided to hold a novelty shower at the home of Mrs. D. Cameron, 1430 Denman Avenue, on May 27, commencing at 2:30 o'clock, for the purpose of securing parcels for the novelty booth at the garden party. The party is to be held on June 10 at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Patterson. The sick committee reported making thirty visits and taking flowers, fruit and candy to sick members. Following the business session, a social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. D. Cameron and Mrs. H. W. Curtis as hostesses.

Britannia Lodge L.O.B.A.—Britannia Lodge L.O.B.A. No. 218 held its regular business meeting at the Orange Hall, Courtney Street, on Tuesday evening. Sister Nicholas, H.M., presided, with Sister Caldwell in the deputy's chair. An unusual large attendance of members and visitors were present to welcome the R.H. mistress, Sister Burt, of Nanaimo, also R.H. deputy, Sister Lees of Vancouver. Sister Burt reviewed the welfare of the L.O.B.A. Sister Lees gave some very interesting accounts of the work of the Protestant Orphanage. The lodge also welcomed a new member into its gathering, Sister Reid, of Constance Avenue, very kindly offered her home for a sewing bee to be held on Thursday, May 14, after the meeting daily refreshments were served.

Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter L.O.B.E.—A very interesting report of the annual meeting of the Provincial Chapter was brought to the meeting of the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter yesterday by Miss Josephine Cross, the chapter's delegate. Following the report of the Municipal Chapter meeting, given by Mrs. Boyd, the chapter voted $1 to the Sea Cadets trophy. In acknowledging the chapter's letter of thanks and congratulations, D. B. Plunkett, M.P., expressed the hope that some suitable memorial, commemorating the historic interest of Clover Point, would eventually be erected, in which hope the chapter heartily concurred. A charming letter of thanks was received from Lady Currie, acknowledging the welcome extended to her upon her arrival in Victoria by the chapter. Miss Wace Terry was elected as the chapter's delegate to the national annual meeting. Members were reminded of the patriotic service to be held in Parliament Square on May 22, also of the service of intercession to be held on May 28 at 10 o'clock in St. Paul's Garrison Church, Esquimalt.

At the close of the anthem the vicar rose to preach, and tactlessly chose the text: "Now when the noise had ceased." But the choir got their own back. At the end of the long prayer sermon, they rose and spontaneously broke into the anthem. "And when we awoke from our sleep."

President Says Piano on Path To Extinction
Aberdeen, Wash., May 7.—The piano is on the path to extinction, Mrs. Abbie Raymond, Bellingham, president of the Washington State Federation of Music Clubs, declared today in her opening address at the annual federation convention. RUMORS RIFE IN COURT CIRCLES

Conflicting Reports as to Queen Helen's Departure From Bucharest

Vienna, May 8.—Dispatches from Bucharest yesterday said an official report published there declared Queen Helen had left for Belgrade on invitation of the Queen of Yugoslavia, who learned Helen needed rest after her ordeal in nursing Crown Prince Michael through his illness. Helen, it was said, would accompany the Yugoslavian royal family for their summer residence at Bled for two weeks, going later to France. Members of Queen Helen's entourage, however, said the queen had been "invited to leave by King Carol's master of ceremonies."

From the same sources came the story the invitation resulted from the meeting of King Carol and King Alexander last Monday when, it was said, Carol asked his brother-in-law to endeavor to induce Queen Helen to agree to reside abroad on the condition she be permitted to visit Rumania every summer and spend several months in the mountains with Crown Prince Michael. During Michael's illness it was frequently pointed out, if the crown prince should die there would be no direct successor to the throne. Any possibility of a marriage between the King and Mme. Lupeacu was thought to be out of the question, however, and it was emphasized that no child of such a marriage could ever ascend the throne.

JACK WRIGHT RETURNS TO FORM TO WIN

After Going Down to Defeat in Davis Cup Trials, He Wins Game To-day

Toronto, May 8.—Dr. Jack Wright of Montreal this morning defeated C. W. Leslie, also of Montreal, in the second stage of the 1931 Canadian Davis Cup trials. Dr. Wright showed form reminiscent of two years ago when he won the Canadian championship. He defeated Leslie in straight sets, 6-1, 6-1, 6-1.

Great interest is being evinced in today's matches. The other two singles games are Dr. Ham, Toronto, versus Walter Martin, Regina; Marcel Rainville, Montreal, versus Gilbert Nunns, Toronto.

This afternoon Wright and Rainville will engage in a doubles encounter with Martin and Nunns and another hectic battle is anticipated.

LOST YESTERDAY
Yesterday honors went to Nunns and Rainville. Nunns conquered Wright after a protracted five-set match, while Rainville defeated Martin in four sets.

Leslie and Ham also gave a spectacular display in a terrific battle which ended yesterday evening at one set each, and will be completed to-day.

The Nunns-Wright game went to the former, 5-7, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4, 6-1. Neither player was up to form, although there were occasional flashes of brilliant tennis.

The opening game of the day between Rainville and Martin, produced a variety of tennis, featured by hard driving duels, in which the rainy weather proved superior. Rainville showed great finesse, however, and won the match 6-4, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4.

Knocked Down Five Times, Boxer Falls Before Final Blow

Tacoma, May 8.—Scoring five knock-downs, four of them for nine counts, Freddie Steele, Tacoma welterweight, decisively defeated Esten Hunter, Sacramento, in the fifth round main event of the ring show here yesterday evening. Hunter was down for nine tolls in the second, twice in the fourth and again in the sixth and went down again without being hit just before the final gong sounded.

Ferguson, Calgary welterweight, won a close decision over Mickey Dolan, Portland, in the other six-round bout.

JOCKEY FIGHTS FOR LIFE AFTER KICK BY MOUNT

Del. Mont., Cal., May 8.—Roger Cooper, twenty-four, jockey in the last race in the Del. Monte steeplechase here yesterday, was probably fatally injured when his mount failed to clear the last jump. Cooper, whose home is in Louisville, Ky., is in a hospital suffering a fractured skull. Cooper was riding Buddy, a horse owned by Lynn Rogers of Carmel. The horse landed on his head and the neck was broken. Cooper was knocked up and down and the horse in the steeplechase, kicked him in the face. Physicians said Cooper probably would die.

OUR MAIL BAG

AND THE PLAYER ALWAYS PAYS

To the Sporting Editor:—Once again I am on the so-called "war-path," but this time, my complaint has to do with financial problems in the basketball world. In writing this letter, I feel confident that I am voicing the opinions of just about every Victoria team that did any traveling in search of British Columbia basketball championships this year.

Basketball, as played to-day, is a mighty expensive business, especially to the teams which win championships and are forced to travel from place to place. To show the Victoria fans just how expensive the game is, I should like to lay before them the case of Federal senior-A five who came very close to copying the British Columbia championship from Varsity about a month back.

Those who attended the series against Nanaimo and Varsity know that we played before-packed houses, and I might say that the crowds, both in Nanaimo and Vancouver, were equally as good. And what did we get out of it all in the way of traveling expenses? Well, I'll tell you. We were handed over $7. That was not per man but for the whole team. We were supposed to hire a car and buy the odd meal, etc., on that amount. Now for the length of time necessary to get to and from Nanaimo; meals amount to another $6, while if we wanted to stay overnight, as most teams in championship series do, it would add something like $10 more to the total, bringing our expenses up to around $46.

How in the world we were expected to get a car on $7 and pay for our other expenses is beyond me. If it had not been for Mr. Jones being so kind as to lend us his car for the occasion, I suppose we should have still been trying to figure a way of transporting eight players on $7. As it was, we managed to pile into our car, much to our discomfort, but we came back to play a mighty hard game and come back to Victoria the same night. Believe me when I say we were more than tired and cramped by the time we arrived home. So much for the Nanaimo trip.

Now just to word about the Vancouver trip. Our expenses on that occasion were as follows: Bus fares, $26.80; stadium, $1; meals in Vancouver, $20; hotel for one night, $10; transportation to and from the hotel, a total of $57.80. All this makes a total of $57.80. Last week I received a cheque for $19 from the British Columbia Basketball Association and $12.70 from J. Taylor, which sums were supposed to cover our expenses. In other words, we had to dig down into our own pockets to the tune of $28.20. That meant we each had to pay $3.50 for the privilege of representing Victoria in the British Columbia play-offs. Of course, that doesn't sound very much, but, by the way, school or are out of work, and we have four such players on our team. Now these paid and unpaid expenses are exceedingly well patronized. They are crowd-ers and they must have taken in over $500 at the two games. Yet all they gave to the team was a penny. In our case they were: Referee, $25; gymnasium rental, $7.50; doorman, $4; telephone, etc., $2.60. When all this was paid, we had the sum of $12.60 on which to get to the Victoria Columbia Basketball Association where it was pooled with

Club Champ Wins Colwood Medal Contest

Playing good golf in a strong wind at the Royal Colwood Golf Club, Mrs. F. Sayward-Wilson turned in a net card of 85 to win the class "A" monthly medal round played yesterday. Mrs. Sayward-Wilson, last week, won the club championship and displayed the same fine form to lead the field yesterday. The class "B" prize went to Mrs. H. E. Brown, who handed in a card with a net 83.

WANDERERS TO PLAY FIVE C'S

To-morrow afternoon the Wanderers and Five C's cricket teams will meet at 2:30 o'clock at Work Point Barracks. The Wanderers' lineup will be: A. J. Brown (captain), Brown, Porter, Austin, Collett, Slater, Robinson, Dunn, Normington, Bundoock and Moffatt.

Flagging Cincinnati Buys New Men; Drops Hard Fixture to Cubs

Manager Dan Howley Makes Changes, But Club Still Looks Far From Effective; St. Johnson Pitches Seven Good Innings for Reds, But Weakens to Allow Chicago to Drive in a Victory in Extra Sessions; Cards Walk Over Pittsburgh 11 to 5; Sorrell Holds Down White Sox

The Cincinnati Reds appear shy, a few important parts of a good ball club, despite Manager Dan Howley's efforts to build up something like a winner.

Howley made a few more changes yesterday, buying Harvey Hendrick, Brooklyn utility man, to plug the hole at first base, and releasing Chuck Dressen, but it appears that he has plenty of work ahead of him. Two Red outfielders, Wally Roettger and Cliff Heathcote, are pounding the ball at a 400 clip, but no other player on the team is even near the 300 mark.

The return of Ed Roush has not worked out, and Dick Cullip has not been hitting. Joe Stripp, a 300 hitter last year, has the best mark of the infielders, .268, while Chick Cuccinello, who was expected to do some slugging, is barely above .200.

The Reds' pitching also has been ineffective. St. Johnson did seven good innings against the Cubs yesterday only to weaken, and Chicago hammered out five successive hits in the eighth to tie the score at 4 to 4. The Cubs pushed over another run off Ray Kopp in the eleventh to win, 5 to 4, for Cincinnati's fifteenth defeat in seventeen games. Kopp won one of the two victories and pitched a ten-inning game, the route four times, took the other.

CARDS WIN AGAIN
The league leading St. Louis Cardinals won their seventh game in a row yesterday, combining good pitching and powerful hitting to beat Pittsburgh 11 to 5. Jess Haines gave the Pirates only seven hits, while the Cards got that many in the fourth inning, putting over five runs and then coming back after a shower to add four more in the fifth.

The St. Louis Browns, by far less successful than their townsmen so far, did about as well yesterday. They got started in the fifth inning and pounded four Cleveland pitchers for a total of seventeen hits and a 10 to 4 victory. George Blahodier, elected thirteen blows, but he kept them well scattered to turn in his first victory of the season.

SCORES FIRST WIN
Vic Sorrell of Detroit also recorded his first win of the year, holding the Chicago White Sox to nine hits as the Tigers won 6 to 1. Detroit collected four hits and as many runs off Al Thomas before he retired the second man in the opening inning.

The eastern clubs of the American League had an open date as they began their first western trip of the year and New York and Boston, in the National also were not scheduled. Brooklyn's game at Philadelphia was rained out.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Chicago, May 8.—Shut out by Johnson for seven innings yesterday, the Cubs scored four runs in the eighth and another in the eleventh to beat Cincinnati 5-4, and sweep the three-game series.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Batting—Ruth, Yankees, .452; Fonseca, Indians, .430.
Runs—Blue, White Sox, 19; Fonseca, Indians, 18.
Runs batted in—Cronin, Senators, 25; Averill, Indians, 20.
Hits—Fonseca, Indians, 34; Cronin, Senators, Alexander, Tigers, 33.
Doubles—Alexander, Tigers, 11; Webb, Red Sox; Fonseca, Indians, 9.
Triples—H. Rice, Senators, 4; Gehrig, Yankees; Cronin, Senators; Bluge, Senators; Simmons, Athletics, 3.
Home runs—Stone, Tigers, 5; Simmons, Athletics; Gehrig and Ruth, Yankees, 4.
Stolen bases—Johnson, Tigers, 6; Chase, White Sox; Gehrig and Chapman, Yankees, 5.

YESTERDAY'S STARS
Earl Grace, Cubs; his long fly in the eleventh drove in Wilson with runs that beat Reds, 5 to 4.
Oscar Matillo, Brown, closed Cleveland pitching for Trippe and won the game, scoring three runs and driving in one.
John (Pepper) Martin, Cardinals, accounted for six runs against Pirates with a home run, double and two singles.
Vic Sorrell, Tigers, scattered White Sox nine hits and beat them 6 to 1.

COAST LEAGUE
Portland, May 8.—The veteran Walter Mails was in fine pitching form yesterday and led Portland to a 3-1 victory over the Seattle Indians. The Seavers hit Mails hard in two innings for their three runs.

MANAGER FIGHTS
Los Angeles, May 8.—The San Francisco Seals defeated Hollywood yesterday evening in a game that was featured by a rough-and-ready fight on the third base line between Julian Wera, once a Hollywood player but since 1928 a Seal, and Oscar Vitt, manager of the Hollywood club. The score was 8 to 4.

LOSE FAT THIS WAY

No matter how fat you are or how much you hate to get out and walk a couple of miles—

If you will take half a teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning for 30 days—

You will feel so good—so energetic, and the urge for activity will be so great that you will immensely enjoy a daily walk of several miles—and lose fat.

Why will Kruschen Salts make this great change for the better in me—it is natural for you to ask.

Because Kruschen is a blend of the six vitalizing salts Nature says your body must have to keep every organ, gland and nerve in the body buoyantly healthy.

While you are losing fat you will be gaining in energy—in endurance—in ambition. Your skin will grow clearer, and your eyes will sparkle with the good health that Kruschen brings. The old arm chair won't hold you any more—you'll want to be up and doing—you'll lose fat, and probably live years longer.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

MILLION MILLION YEARS AND NOTHING WILL BE LEFT OF THIS HARD OLD WORLD

So Says Sir James Jeans, British Scientist, Who Has Reached Pasadena; It Is a Matter of Destruction By the Force of Radiation, He Explains.

Pasadena, Cal., May 2.—Not only are we and men headed for oblivion, but also the world they live in. Gradually, inexorably, the universe is disintegrating. On some far, dark, distant day there will be no matter left.

Sir James Jeans, English astronomer and scientist, made the forecast. A million million years, and maybe more, will come and go before radiation—the breakdown of matter—brings the dire end, Sir James believes.

His belief jibes with the belief, recently expressed, of Professor Albert Einstein. It is at variance with the belief of Professor Robert A. Millikan, for Millikan has postulated the theory that far out in space new atoms are forming, new nuclei coming into being, to become after eons and eons new and vast universes.

Sir James Jeans and Lady Jeans have reached Pasadena to join Professor Millikan and Professor Edwin Hubble, who recently were hosts of Professor Einstein.

He doubts that it will be possible during his lifetime to attain in a laboratory the tremendously high temperature believed necessary to release sub-atomic forces, a temperature estimated as equal to that of the interior of the stars.

"But with certain protective devices such a thing is conceivable," he said. "After all, man is not going to attempt experiments which mean he will be burned up and turned into gas and derive no benefit from them."

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! A particle no bigger than a pea from the star Van Maanen, he has declared in a recent book, emits sufficient radiation to burn everything within 1,000 miles of it. Release of energy such as this, he said, would result if a laboratory should unleash sub-atomic energy.

"If an atom were split and its energy released might it not communicate its disintegration and thus bring on the complete disappearance of the earth from the universe?" he was asked.

"That is possible," he said. "I was once very interested in reading the work of a novelist named Stapleton, who used this idea for his plot. It was the story of the last man." He smiled at the suggestion that the increase in radio broadcasting time have a dramatic effect upon the permanence of the earth.

CHANCE AND CHANGEFULNESS

"There are so many unseen and unknown forces about us," he said, "which we do not understand or grasp, that a blind use of them might result in something of the sort. I would not say blind; rather, an accidental use of them. So much of what happens comes from accident."

Pasadena, Sir James said, has become the world mecca for astronomers. "I am interested in finding out when the new 300-inch reflector is to be installed," he said. "It will replace the 100-inch reflector now in use there. Any of us who are really keeping up with things will have to make frequent pilgrimages to Dr. Millikan and Dr. Hubble. Their equipment is the most complete in the world."

Sir James will return east May 20 and will be the guest of honor at

New Bar Urged On Worthless Cheque Workers

Canadian Press

Ottawa, May 8.—With a view to hampering the activities of unscrupulous persons who issue worthless cheques, A. W. Neill, independent, Comox-Alberni, has given notice on the order paper of the Commons of a bill to amend the Criminal Code.

Mr. Neill yesterday explained his amendment was designed to place a greater restraint on the activities of people who go into a town, issue a number of worthless cheques and then clear out. While directed at this class of individual, his bill, said Mr. Neill, was designed to safeguard the person who, through some accident, overdraws his account, and also the small business man who issued cheques with the belief he would have funds to meet them when presented.

He wished to amend the act so as to "cramp the style of the professional crooks." Mr. Neill said that under the provisions of the code at present it was necessary to prove false pretences in order to secure a conviction.

For Greater Safety on Every Highway

THE FORD CAR IS EQUIPPED WITH SHATTERLESS PLATE GLASS WINDSHIELD

FOR greater safety in driving, every Ford car is equipped with a shatterless plate glass windshield. By reducing the danger of flying glass it has saved many lives and prevented countless injuries in automobile accidents.

The value of this important safety factor has been known for many years, but its use has been limited by expense. It is brought to you on the Ford as standard equipment only because of the efficiency and economy of Ford methods. Much pioneering work has been done in finding ways to manufacture in large volume at low cost.

It is interesting to know how the shatterless glass windshield of the Ford is made and why it gives so much extra protection. The process of manufacture requires many separate operations, yet it can be explained in a few simple words.

Two pieces of plate glass, carefully ground and polished, are covered on one side with a thin coating of gelatine. This coating is baked hard, sprayed with liquid celluloid, and treated with a solvent.

Then, between the two pieces of glass, like the middle of a sandwich, is inserted a layer of special celluloid. This also has been treated with a solvent.

When heat and pressure are applied to the glass sandwich, this solvent helps to dissolve the surfaces in contact and they are actually fused together. It is almost like a welding process. The result is a single sheet of beautiful, clear laminated glass. The final operation is sealing the edges as protection against air and moisture.

This laminated windshield will withstand a 50% harder impact before breaking than plate glass of equal thickness, and is more flexible under impact. When struck an unusually hard blow, it will crack, but the danger from flying glass is minimized because of the inside layer of celluloid.

The greatest care is taken to insure uniform high quality. Plate glass is used for clear vision. One sheet in every 150 is taken for test. For the impact test, a steel ball is dropped six feet to the center of a large sheet.

Other samples are subjected to ultra-violet rays and infra-red rays which give, in a few hours, an exposure equal to several years of normal driving. This is done to check the effect of the sun's rays and heat on the crystal clearness of the glass.

Many improvements have been made in the past three years. Today, the shatterless glass used on the Ford is recognized as one of the greatest contributions to safety since four-wheel brakes. High speed and crowded traffic emphasize the need of the protection it affords. It is just another instance of the extra value in the Ford.

All Ford cars come to you equipped with a shatterless plate glass windshield as standard equipment. If you desire, you may have your new Ford delivered to you with shatterless glass in the side windows as well. The charge is reasonable. $15 for the Cabriolet and Sport Coupe and $25 for other body types.

No Flying Glass Here

A woman and three children were in this Ford when a passing car overturned a horse-shoe in the road and sent it crashing into the windshield. No one was hurt because there was no flying glass.

Used in World War

During the World War, shatterless glass was used in goggles for aviators, eye blanks for gas masks, and for windows on tanks and submarines. It is now used on battleships and destroyers to prevent injuries when glass windows are broken by heavy seas or the shock of severe gunfire.

The Impact Test

A steel ball is dropped six feet on the glass used for the windshield of the Ford to check-up on its non-shattering qualities.

WORLD PACT ON FARM PRODUCE IS SUGGESTED

International Chamber Hears Remedy Proposed For Conditions in Agriculture

Soviet Russia Should Be Included, Says Former Wisconsin University Dean

Washington, May 8.—Agreement among agricultural nations, including Soviet Russia, to regulate farm production to consumption was proposed before the International Chamber of Commerce here yesterday by Alfred Falter, chairman of the Polish delegation.

Joining Dr. H. L. Russell, former dean of the college of agriculture, University of Wisconsin, in the belief the problem for world farmers is to adjust production to existing needs, Falter said it was "obvious the worldwide agricultural crisis may only be solved by international means based on a world-wide scale."

The proposed agreement, he said, should "encompass on one hand the adaptation of the production to the consumption by means of organizing such production with a view to its regulation, and on the other hand should aim at a proper organization of commerce in order to avoid unnecessary disturbances of the markets through divers actions and individual methods."

MUST INCLUDE SOVIET Such a plan would not be feasible without Soviet participation, he said, adding:

"Irrespective of the final result which Russia may attain by her planned economic and agricultural activity, the effect of such an activity must, without the slightest doubt, make it impossible for the world, as long as it remains in its present disordered condition, to check the actual crisis."

Russell said no country would attempt to limit its acreage unless the same restrictions were applied by others. The recent international conference at Rome, he added, "ran into trouble in this particular," when the Soviets refused to restrict their wheat.

Russell assailed Federal farm relief in the United States as temporary artificial stimulation that only postpones inevitable readjustments and a permanent cure. He warned of Russia's "limitless possibilities for expansion," especially in cereal grain farming.

DISTRIBUTION DISCUSSION Lord Luke of Pavenham, British financier, and E. F. Kelly, president of the National Retail Dry Goods Association of America, discussed merchandising and distribution.

Lord Luke stressed the importance of distribution economy. He said this was "more evident to-day when wage earners on short time or in some countries—the sole receivers—are having to consider every cent before they spend it."

To be perfect, he added, distribution systems should provide delivery to the consumer at the lowest possible addition to the cost of manufacture.

BIG ORGANIZATION TO HANDLE NEW CONVERSION LOAN

Eighty Extra Federal Employees Added; Tons of Paper Used

Canadian Press Ottawa, May 8.—A mammoth machine is being geared up to handle the largest conversion loan that has ever been offered to the public of Canada, under an organization directly headed by Premier R. B. Bennett, in his capacity as Minister of Finance, and Sir Charles H. Gordon, its chairman of the loan management committee.

Great activity prevails at the Department of Finance and the government printing bureau, which is being taxed to its utmost to take care of the printing incidental to the offering. The department is taking on fifty extra employees in Ottawa to assist in the task, and thirty outside of Ottawa at the offices of the various assistant receivers-general throughout Canada.

Sixteen big high-speed presses are working on a twenty-four-hour daily schedule at the government printing bureau, grinding out prospectuses, applications, receipts and other forms required for the loan.

MUCH PAPER USED A very large tonnage of paper is being used. Soon after the order was received from the Department of Finance the bureau's reserve stock of paper was all utilized, and the big paper mills in Hull, across the river from Ottawa, were cleaned out of their stocks of suitable grades of paper. Paper mills at Cornwall, Ont., and Valleyfield, Que., were also cleared of their available supplies.

Just when the public offering of the loan will be made has not yet been announced, but it will be at an early day. Mr. Bennett has indicated only a part of the $1,082,000,000 of bonds maturing between now and 1934 will be accepted at present for exchange into the new long-term bonds, but the organization that has been set up is capable of handling any portion of the large total that may be required.

Real Festival Spirit Noted

SIR HUGH ROBERTSON TO ADDRESS SCHOOL TEACHERS SATURDAY

Sir Hugh Robertson, joint choral and vocal adjudicator at the musical festival, will address the school teachers of Victoria and district on "School Music" in the First United Church school room at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SEATTLE DUETS VICTORIOUS IN STRINGS TO-DAY

Five String Classes Adjudicated By Professor Franck Eichenlaub, Portland

High Quality of String Playing Seen as Encouragement to Chamber Music

"What pleases me about this morning's string duet playing is not so much the high standard of the work, but the fact that it is starting something which will encourage the development of chamber music and ensemble playing. I feel that the quality of chamber music in Canada is improving every year, and it is by inducing such young players as I have judged this morning to learn an instrument, that such an improvement can be brought about," said Professor Franck Eichenlaub, Portland, in his string adjudication at this morning's session of the Victoria Musical Festival in the First United Church.

"The happiness of all you children is an evidence of the real festival spirit," said Sir Hugh Robertson, adjudicator, in his remarks upon the singing in the event for public school composite choirs at this morning's session of the Victoria Musical Festival in the First United Church.

"Children all the world over are the best sports and the fairest minded people I know," continued Sir Hugh. "They enter for the joy of the thing, while many of the older people worry about those measly little marks. There must be joy in singing. You cannot get success, teachers, until you thrill your children. You must not act superior, for the man who is superior to children is a fool and has betrayed his birthright. I know children very well and speak from experience. I have forty-two feet of sons and eleven feet of daughters myself." Sir Hugh has seven sons, all six feet.

SEATTLE PLAYERS WIN

The exceptionally high mark of 362 was given Eichenlaub and Robert for the violin duo in class 83 for senior violin duet accompanied by piano. Chris Miller and Aubrey Hughes were second with 338.

Laurence Lindgren and Jean Harshman, also of Seattle, headed class 87 for junior violin-violoncello duet. Their mark of 173 was thirty-two ahead of the only other entries, Margaret and Ruth Fringie.

There was only one entry each in the violin viola and the primary violoncello events. Leslie Lindgren secured 82 in the former and Nancy Kyle 160 in the latter.

In his remarks concerning the viola class, Professor Eichenlaub said it was too bad more people did not play the viola.

"That is the reason," he added, "why there are not more quartets. Though it is easy for a violinist to pick up the viola, and a pity more violinists do not do it, the fact remains that the base of the modern orchestra leader's existence is finding viola players."

Nancy Kyle, the 'cello winner, was complimented on her good ear and the beginning of a nice tone. "For a girl who is only nine years old and a student of 'cello for one year, the playing was very fine," observed Professor Eichenlaub.

DAY OF PRAYER BY SHANTYMEN

Rev. Principal Ellis Speaks at Crigden Memorial Hall This Evening

Rev. Walter Ellis, M.A., B.D., principal of the Vancouver Bible School, and pastor of Fairview Presbyterian Church, will be the special speaker at a meeting of the Shantymen's Christian Association, to be held this evening at 8 o'clock in Crigden Memorial Hall. Rev. J. McKinnon of Nanaimo, will be in the chair.

The service will conclude a day of prayer, which opened this morning at 10 o'clock and continued until 5 o'clock. During the prayer meetings the following local clergy and laymen presided: Dr. W. A. Daly, Rev. J. B. Rowell, Rev. Dr. C. T. Scott, E. G. Marriott, Rev. G. Cox, Rev. McKinnon, Rev. A. deB. Owen and others.

The Island missionaries were also in attendance.

The name of Elizabeth Jones was inadvertently left out of the general pass list of Victoria students graduating with B.A. degrees from the University of British Columbia.

Yesterday's results and adjudications will be found on page 16.

PRISON INMATES READY FOR EXAMS

Kingspin, May 8.—In connection with the candidates of the Kingston penitentiary who are to write on matriculation examinations in June, it is announced that another class is in course of preparation to try examinations for high school entrance.

A number of the inmates have, during recent years, passed all their examinations and are qualified to enter universities. It is reported that the Big Brotherhood of Ontario might have the matter up with some of the Ontario universities.

That these candidates might go on with the university work extra-murally.

Sir Hugh Robertson, Glasgow, Stresses Need for Happiness in Singing at This Morning's Session of Victoria Musical Festival; Awards Shield for Best Public School Composite Choir to Victoria West School; Oaklands and Burnside Tie for Second; Over Five Hundred Young Children Participate in One Choral Event

"They enter for the joy of the thing, while many of the older people worry about those measly little marks. There must be joy in singing. You cannot get success, teachers, until you thrill your children. You must not act superior, for the man who is superior to children is a fool and has betrayed his birthright. I know children very well and speak from experience. I have forty-two feet of sons and eleven feet of daughters myself." Sir Hugh has seven sons, all six feet.

PIANO DUETS THIS MORNING DISAPPOINTING

Harold Samuel, London, Attributes Poor Playing to Carelessness

Three one piano duets were adjudicated by Harold Samuel in the First Baptist Church this morning. Class 64 for elementary girls was won by Jean Routley and Jean A. Straight with a mark of 81. Only one award was made. There were twelve entries.

In his remarks on this class, Mr. Samuel said that, while there was some nice playing, rhythm was lacking in many cases. The competitors should have been quite serious and be exactly together, he added.

The adjudicator took one of the teams to the platform and played the piece, Schumann's "Birthday March," first with one of the contestants and then with the other. He then played the whole piece through himself.

In class 65 for one piano elementary boys' duet, no award was made. Mr. Samuel expressed himself greatly disappointed with this class. "I am speaking quite seriously when I say the chief fault was just careless playing," he observed.

Class 66 for one piano junior girls' duet was won by Alice M. Skellern and Dorothy Plumb with Christine Schmetz and Doreen Mills second. The winning mark was 80 and the second mark 78.

OBITUARY

There passed away at a late hour yesterday evening, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Mrs. E. J. Burns, aged 65 years. She was born in Norwich, England, and had been a resident of Koksilah, near Duncan, for twelve years. She survived her husband, Richard Young, one son, John, and a daughter, Rose, at the family residence, and one brother and two sisters in England. The remains will be removed Sunday morning from the St. Joseph's Hospital to Koksilah, where funeral services will be conducted by Rev. W. F. Burns.

The funeral of Mrs. Lily Maud Hardy, who died on Wednesday at the Jubilee Hospital, will be held from the Thomson and Fetterly Funeral Home to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. She is survived by her husband, Charles Richard Hardy, two sons, Charles and Albert, at home, and one brother-in-law, Regina. The remains will be laid to rest in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

The funeral of William (Billy) Clark Williamson took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Thomson and Fetterly Funeral Home. Rev. Dr. C. T. Scott officiating. Many friends were in attendance, and the little casket was hidden by a profusion of floral tributes. During the service the hymns, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," were sung. Layton Partington presided at the organ. The following were pallbearers: E. J. Johnson, M. Johnson, A. Spouse and G. Wilkinson. Interment was in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

The funeral of John Emerson will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from McCall Bros' Funeral Home. Rev. F. W. McKinnon will conduct the service after which interment will be in Ross Bay Cemetery.

John Grant of 1231 McKenzie Street passed away at an early hour this morning at the Jubilee Hospital after a lingering illness. He was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, forty-six years ago, and had been a resident of Victoria for twenty-four years, being employed by the B.C. Electric Company as a line worker for the last twenty years. He was a member of Confederation Lodge, A.F. and A.M., of Columbia Chapter Royal Arch and of Gish Burns Temple, a past Viceroy, commander of Knights of Pythias, and a member of Electrical Workers Union No. 230. He is survived by his widow and one son at the family residence; a half-brother, James Munro, Springfield, Mass.; a half-sister, Mrs. Claude Copeland, Dundee, Scotland. The remains are being kept at the Sands Funeral Chapel, and the funeral will be held on Monday under the auspices of the A.F. and A.M.

There passed away yesterday at St. Joseph's Hospital, John Megaly, aged sixty-five years. Born in Belfast, Ireland, Mr. Megaly came to Canada twenty years ago from Toronto. He is survived by his widow, residing at 1138 Hinkley Street, Victoria, and will be buried on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the S. J. Curry and Son Funeral Home. Interment will be in the Royal Oak Burial Park. It is requested that no flowers be sent.

A. CARMICHAEL NEW HEAD OF REALTY BOARD

David Leeming Presented With Silver Salver By Victoria Real Estate Board

Rental Survey to Be Undertaken; Few Vacant Houses; Values Maintained

Alfred Carmichael was this afternoon installed as president of the Victoria Real Estate Board, at the annual meeting held at Spencer's. The luncheon was marked by one of the largest attendances recorded for several years, among the guests being Reeve Hayward of Oak Bay, Reeve Crutch of Saanich; H. G. Garrett, provincial superintendent of real estate agents; Robert Baird, inspector of municipalities; M. F. Hunter, city clerk; R. H. F. Sewell, R. F. Blandy and G. H. Fulton, clerks, respectively of Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt, and City Assessor G. A. Oskell.

The new executive installed with Mr. Carmichael included Robert Musgrave, first vice-president; Alex. Gillespie, second vice-president; and the executive committee of J. G. Bridgman, James Foran, R. H. Ker, A. B. Wolfenden, S. G. Clark and Major M. Kirkpatrick Crockett, the retiring president.

The luncheon was featured by presentation by Major Crockett to David Leeming of a large engraved silver salver, as recognition by the board of his leadership in the campaign to keep the mill rate as low as possible.

The board also decided to forthwith undertake a rental survey after Mr. Leeming had pointed out that few desirable residences were vacant and that realty values had been notably stable during a year which had seen collapse of even gilt-edge stocks and bonds.

REVIEW OF YEAR

In his report as retiring president, Major Crockett expressed appreciation for the work of Mr. Leeming on taxation matters, and urged close attention to zoning matters. He thanked Messrs. Bridgman and Pemberton for their work on the resolutions committee and Major Cuthbert Holmes for his labors on the legislation committee.

Appreciation of the cordial attitude of the City Council and the school board was expressed. Mr. Crockett remarked that the year's work had brought both civic bodies in close contact with the executive of the board.

He was glad the Provincial Government was studying means of dealing with the unduly heavy proportion of school taxation now borne by land and criticized the District Act as unfair and warranting application to the Legislature for relief.

Robert Leathaby, secretary, read a report of the year's activities and was thanked for his efficient services.

PRESIDENT CARMICHAEL

Alfred Carmichael, when installed as president, made an appeal for continued support of the board by the realty men of the city and the surrounding areas. He said that the board was a "wonderful privilege" just to "give here."

Other speakers were Reeve Hayward and Crouch, and Messrs. Garrett and Baird and Foran, the latter urging the board to visit Salt Spring Island.

Husbands In Canada Lead Divorce Race

In Applications to Dominion Courts for Freedom from Matrimonial Ties Men and Women Are About Evenly Divided, While in the United States Two Wives to Every Husband Appeal to the Judge.

French, claimed the whole case was out of court because of irregularities in the bankruptcy proceedings. He claimed that the three inspectors had not been properly appointed and technicalities had not been complied with which would place Mr. Roberts in the position legally to bring this action.

Mr. Elliott put in the box Knox Courtney, clerk of the Legislature, who testified there had not been the required publication in the official B.C. Gazette, a paper published every week by the B.C. Government.

Norman Whitaker, as counsel for Mr. Roberts, asked permission to quote authorities to justify Mr. Roberts's position.

Judge Lampan reserved his decision, giving Mr. Whitaker the privilege of submitting his authorities in writing.

Dates for the senior and junior matriculation examination were released yesterday. The senior group at Victoria College will start first on Monday, June 15, while the High School students will begin their writing on Wednesday, June 19, and continue until the end of the month.

Canadian husbands apply to the divorce courts to seek freedom from the bonds of matrimony to a greater extent than husbands in any other country in the world. In most countries women are overwhelmingly in the majority in divorce court applications. In Canada it is almost an even break in the number of men and the number of women who start the suits to secure their freedom.

Previous to 1924 Canada's divorce statistics differed from those of other countries, in that they showed that a majority of the divorces granted were at the petition of the husband. In 1924 wives obtained 51.2 per cent of the decrees granted, but in 1925 husbands were again in the majority of the successful petitioners with 50.6 per cent. But since that date wives have led in their applications to the courts, and in 1930 the percentage of wives seeking divorces increased to 56.7 per cent. The increase was probably due to the fact that the Divorce Act of 1925 removed certain barriers and made it easier for wives to gain their freedom.

In the United States there are about two wives seeking divorces to every man who applies to the courts, and the proportion has remained fairly constant for over forty years.

It has previously been pointed out that out of 875 divorces granted in Canada last year British Columbia was the highest number among the provinces with 355.

SENIOR VIOLIN PLAYING WINS HIGH PRAISE

Prof. Franck Eichenlaub,
Portland Adjudicator, Calls
It "Refreshing"

Gabriel Brown, Nanaimo,
Heads Seniors; Seattle Trio
Awarded 90 Marks

"It is quite refreshing to hear the violin played as it was to-night in the senior violin solo class," said Professor Franck Eichenlaub, Portland adjudicator, in his comment yesterday evening in the First United Church. "I believe the standard is coming up every year in Canada. Encouragement in the schools is having its effect."

The senior violin event was won by Gabriel Brown, Nanaimo, with 104 marks. John Henry Pimm came second with 160.

In adjudicating this class, Professor Eichenlaub asserted that there was too much "inner urge" in the competitors' playing of Gluck's "Melodie." "The piece is chaste and should be played with a certain restraint," he added.

DON'T BURY GRACE NOTES
The staccato in Beethoven's "Allegretto" was, generally speaking, very good," noted the adjudicator. "But it must be remembered that the grace notes can not be hurried over. Speed, they say, comes from heaven and hurry from the other place. There was a noticeable lack of rests in to-night's playing. Mozart said that one of the best tests is silence, and this is a wise dictum."

The only entry in the instrumental trio class for violin, cello and piano was Zelma Spigelman, Sarah Handen and Bona Israel, all of Seattle. They were described by the adjudicator as a very excellent organization on the whole with consistently good intonation and fine balance of strings, and were given the very high mark of 90.

The open violinello class had also but one entry, Mildred Johnson, Vancouver. Professor Eichenlaub commented upon the rich quality of Miss Johnson's tone, though noting the intonation was a bit off.

Class 66 for violin classes had George J. Dyke's ensemble as the sole entry. The marks were 137.

Complete Results At Festival Yesterday

The deciding of winners of certain special prizes and challenge shields featured the results of yesterday's sessions of the Victoria Musical Festival. Four special prize-winners were announced and two graded school choirs received the challenge shields.

With only to-day and to-morrow left, attendances in the various halls and especially at the First United Church, are becoming larger. Yesterday morning the first violin adjudications were conducted in the Progressive Thought Temple by Professor Franck Eichenlaub, Portland. The day was a strenuous one for Professor Eichenlaub, starting early in the morning, he kept on adjudicating till after 11 o'clock at night, with only two three-quarters of an hour break at lunch and supper time.

The strings adjudicator was very thorough and painstaking, and in many cases actually took the score of the competitors' test pieces and pointed out to the players personally just where they erred. He told the contestants that he would be only too glad to see them in private and help them over their various difficulties.

Another treat was given the evening audience at the First United Church by Harold Samuel, piano adjudicator and virtuoso. Mr. Samuel played right through one of the test pieces, Mendelssohn's "Spinning Song," and was again enthusiastically applauded.

VISITORS DOING WELL
A feature of yesterday's results was the fine showing made by outside entries. Competitors from the State of Washington, Vancouver and Upland led many of the outstanding events, and considering their comparative lack of numbers the outsiders are distinguishing themselves very much indeed.

Yesterday's results were as follows:
SPECIAL PRIZES
Cloveale School wins Saanich Athletic Association Junior Cup for the Saanich choir securing the highest marks in classes 10 to 14, inclusive.

Catherine Craig secures the B.C. Dramatic School Junior Cup for highest marks secured in classes 135 to 142, inclusive.

MORE WINNERS DECLARED IN VOCAL EVENTS

F. Dudley Wickett Heads Baritone Solo Class; Marjorie Watson Best Folk Singer

Boys Make Better Footballers Than Fairies, Says Sir Hugh Robertson

F. Dudley Wickett captured one of the major vocal events of the Victoria Musical Festival when he was awarded first prize in the baritone solo event at the First United Church yesterday evening. His mark of 94 was nine better than that of Arthur W. Trevel, who came second. Robert Malwyn Humphreys was third. There were nine entries.

In his adjudication, H. Plunkett Greene said Mr. Wickett had profited by his advice of the afternoon to cover the top notes, and had put more fire into his singing. The pieces were very well sung vocally by him, said Mr. Greene, though he ought to have changed his facial expression to suit the varying moods of the selections.

SCOTTISH FOLK SONG
One of the features of yesterday afternoon's vocal adjudications was the class for Scottish folk songs for women singers. The test pieces were "Can Ye Buy A Shillelagh" and "O Can Ye Sew Cushions."

The winner was Marjorie Watson, whose mark of 173 was far ahead of the nearest competitor, Elizabeth Russell, Seattle (160). The third competitor was Greta Harrison Unwin, Vancouver, who came one mark behind the second place contestant.

In his remarks, Mr. Greene said the second of the two test pieces, as sung by Miss Watson, was one of the best things he had heard. "Sir Hugh Robertson is Scotch and he assured me the singing was per feet Scotch."

AFTERNOON ADJUDICATIONS
In his afternoon adjudication of the baritone vocal class preliminary, Mr. Greene admonished the singers to cover their high notes—the D sharps and E's.

"A man's voice is different to a woman's. A woman's goes up and up to the top of her head. A man's goes up so far, then goes back into the throat. Some of you men forgot this. Remember also that the voice comes from the solar plexus and that there are a hundred different voices for a hundred different songs. Each song has a certain mood."

Mr. Greene warned the singers against "muzzling" their voices. "Do not sing as though you had just drunk a sherry and bitters which was ninety-nine parts bitters," he said.

Class 52 for girls, boys or mixed trio under sixteen was won by Evelyn England, Noel Johnson and Elvira Grey. Their mark of 88 was one better than that of Billy Inglis, Tom Anstey and K. Cave.

Sir Hugh Robertson read the adjudication and observed that little girls made better fairies than boys, and that boys made better footballers. (The test piece was "A Song of Fairies.") Sir Hugh reiterated his belief in fairies, saying that it did not do to scoff at things one could not see, for one believed in "something" though one believed neither see nor touch it. The audience was delighted.

Piano Adjudicator Tells Audience Not to Get "Inferiority Complex"

An outstanding piano event adjudicated by Harold Samuel at the First United Church yesterday evening in the annual Victoria Musical Festival was class 61 for intermediates. The three finalists in this were wonderfully evenly balanced and their marks were 322, 321 and 321 respectively. The winner was Margaret J. L. Pringle and Catherine Craig and Trula Jane Polwarth, Spokane, tied for second.

In his reference to one of the test pieces of this class—Godowsky's "Lullaby in G Major"—Mr. Samuel said: "Being a bachelor I don't know much about cradles. But it seems to me that if the swing of the cradle is to be represented as this lullaby requires it, the third beat of the piece should be more emphasized. Also, the third and sixth beats of Mendelssohn's 'Spinning Song' should have a great deal to say."

"I did not get a feeling of security from the competitors of this class. You must watch the weak beats. The strong beats will always be there."

Mr. Samuel played the Mendelssohn test piece.

"TOUCH NICE"
Of Miss Pringle's playing, the adjudicator said the touch was nice in the Godowsky piece, though the "cradle rockers" might have been a little more solid."

Class 60 for junior boys' piano solo was won by Edwin Comber with 329 marks. Edwin Bucklin came second with 321.

The tone of the competitors in the event was a little cold, said Mr. Samuel. Referring to Mendelssohn's "Venetian Boat Song" test piece, he remarked that Venetian nights were usually warm, and not like the evenings appeared to be in Victoria.

With a mark of 82, Kathleen Lowe and Hilma Harding won the intermediate two-piano duet, class 69. They had a nice tone and synchronized well, said Mr. Samuel in summing up. He stressed the need for strong and positively clear work, and added that one must keep going and keep thinking if one is playing in unison with one's partner.

In his morning adjudications of primary boys' piano solo (preliminary), Mr. Samuel said the latter class was very good and showed careful training.

VICTORIA MUSIC ALL RIGHT
There is an impression around, said Mr. Samuel, "that might tend to give Victoria music an inferiority complex. Let me tell you your music is good and when I say good I mean good."

Class 60 for the junior boys was especially mentioned by Mr. Samuel and showed results of careful training. The adjudicator gave a lesson and laid stress on the test piece "Venetian Boat Song" by Mendelssohn.

More practice was needed, said Mr. Samuel. Practice did not mean the number of hours put in, but rather the amount of concentration the pupil used. He showed the young players clearly how to master certain difficulties and emphasized the need for more imagination and better understanding of the composer's ideas.

Mr. Samuel remarked upon the amount of good teaching that the Victoria young people were getting.

FOUR CHORAL CLASSES ARE ADJUDICATED

Four choral events were adjudicated yesterday afternoon and evening in the First United Church by Sir Hugh Robertson. The winners were, for grade 3 school choir, Boys' Central School, Miss Elliott, 172; for grade 6 choir, Burnside School, George Green, 173; for boys' choir under sixteen years of age and not over thirty-five voices, the St. Louis College choir, Rev. Brother J. G. Keogh, 165, only entry; and for church choir and choral societies with membership under forty-one and not less than twenty-five singing, the Emmanuel Baptist Church choir, Fred Parfitt, 168. The last two were adjudicated in the evening.

ST. LOUIS COLLEGE PRAISE
Sir Hugh gave a pleasing evening adjudication to the St. Louis College choir, winners in class 19.

"It is a very nice little choir," he said.

The winner was Marjorie Watson, whose mark of 173 was far ahead of the nearest competitor, Elizabeth Russell, Seattle (160). The third competitor was Greta Harrison Unwin, Vancouver, who came one mark behind the second place contestant.

In his remarks, Mr. Greene said the second of the two test pieces, as sung by Miss Watson, was one of the best things he had heard. "Sir Hugh Robertson is Scotch and he assured me the singing was per feet Scotch."

Expectant and Nursing Mothers have a good friend in OVALTINE

THE months before and after baby comes tax a woman's strength to the utmost and that is why Ovaltine should be on the mother's dietary.

No other food is so good for the mother at this critical time. Ovaltine builds up the mother before baby comes and ensures an abundant supply of maternal milk, nature's own food. Ovaltine quickly replaces precious vitality, maintaining mother's health and strength throughout the nursing period.

The best of nature's tonic foods, fresh milk, fresh eggs and ripe barley malt are concentrated in Ovaltine. It is a perfect food, recommended as such by doctors the world over. Ask your own physician.

WARNING
No milk or cocoa drink is in any sense a substitute for Ovaltine. The process by which Ovaltine is made is the result of years of scientific research. Refuse so called "just as good" preparations.

"It is not afraid to sing, and that is the beginning of all endeavor. There is a very beautiful tone to be noted in it, and the singing is smooth, too smooth at times. The vowel sounds are restricted, however, and must be attended to. Keep out that domestic tabby cat meow," he warned.

JUST SLEEPING
The choir had the great negative "Not dead but sleeping," he added.

virtue of not being asleep, concluded Sir Hugh. Some of the choirs he had heard in Victoria Festival might well bear the inscription: "Not dead but sleeping," he added.

How to Flatter Successfully

Gives Key That Unlocks Doors

Let Those Who Would Be Successful Flatterers Follow These Precepts, and All They Wish Will Be Theirs: Avoid the Obvious Compliment; Use Discretion and Subtlety; Above All, Insinuate Admiration Instead of Speaking It

WHEN the cheerful workers of society start out to do their fellow creatures, their chief weapon is flattery. They hold that the compliment is the skeleton key that unlocks every heart and opens every pocketbook. But, while this theory is good, the execution of it is often so bungling that it fails of its object. For the art of the jollier is one of the most difficult arts in the world, and requires a master hand.

A touch too little—and it damns its objects with faint praise. A touch too heavy—and it nauseates with its fulsome. The most successful flatterer is the one who is most careful of technique—and it awakens suspicion. The slightest error in judgment—and it offends where it was meant to please.

In a word, successful flattery must be that perfection of art that hides all art, and a compliment must be so cleverly disguised that the recipient does not recognize it as a jolly, but accepts it as a simple and deserved tribute to his merits.

Not appreciating this is where flatterers make their great mistake. Knowing that all of us love praise and that every mother's son and daughter of us is amenable to the soothing influence of having our fur stroked the right way, they think that our appetite for soft talk is insatiable and that we can be stuffed with false compliments ad lib.

As between the sexes, women are more adept flatterers than men, because they have had more experience. From time immemorial woman's well-being has depended upon the skill with which she could jolly some man along. Thus has she become ambidexterous in handing out flattery with both hands.

Any Dumb Dora can hit the mark with a compliment every time and tell in two minutes after she meets a man just where the vulnerable spot in his vanity is.

A good illustration of the insidious and subtle flattery to which women treat men may be observed in the general attitude of the feminine sex, which adopts the position of incense burner toward men in general.

Also, if you will notice in any company, every woman wears an alert, interested, I-am-having-the-time-of-my-life expression, no matter how dull and stupid is the man to whom she is talking.

Now, generally speaking, there are four mistakes that the jollier makes. The first is in fumbling his approach. Out of a clear sky he hurls the obvious compliment at you, and the individual who pays an obvious compliment is either a fool or takes you to be one.

The next mistake that the unskilled flatterer makes is not using sufficient discretion in paying his compliment.

Occasionally you meet a person whose vanity is so colossal that it is impossible to go astray in mixed compliments and every one of them will hit the bull's eye every time.

But most of us are only vain in spots. We have a dim suspicion that we are a little shy on some good qualities, and so when we are praised for virtues that we do not possess, the compliment falls because our intelligence gives the lie to it. Therein is where the indiscreet flatterer errs. He compliments us for the wrong thing.

The third place where the individual starts out to soft-soap his way through life falls in being too universally flattering. Women are particularly prone to this mistake.

We all know women who think to make themselves agreeable by heaping compliments upon every one they meet. Every man is so handsome, so brave, so intelligent, so strong. Every new gown a sister wears is the most exquisite creation they ever saw. Every baby a wonder. This pen of praise that would be music to your ears if it were sounded for you alone becomes a jarring note when you discover that they sang the same thing to everybody else.

It is only the inexperienced flatterer who compliments self-evident merit. He has his reward, to be sure, but it is nothing compared to that of the discriminating jollier who seeks out the hidden quality that we feel a cold and unappreciative world has overlooked and compliments us on that.

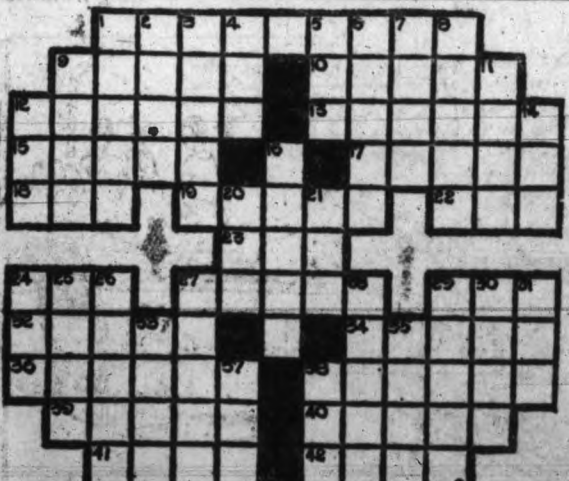

The ugly man who has made a name for himself in literature or art or business or one of the professions is a thousand times more pleased to be thought a lady-killer than a genius. The clever woman would rather be praised for her complexion than her brains, and the domestic woman will cook herself to death for him who praises not her bread, but her literary taste.

But the subtlest form of flattery and the one that goes to our heads is the implied compliment. No praise of your judgment inclines your heart to an individual like having him come to you for advice. No tribute to your beauty or sonnet to your eyebrows is so flattering as finding that someone has bought a real silver frame for your photograph. Only women and diplomats are deft enough to do this, to insinuate admiration too great to be uttered. And they are the past masters of flattery.

"Vanity of vanities, all is vanity," saith the preacher. It can get us all, one way or another.

DOROTHY DIX.

Langford Smoker Is Sponsored By Canadian Legion

Special to The Times

Langford, May 8.—The Prince Edward Branch No. 91, Canadian Legion, have arranged to sponsor a gathering of all ex-service men resident in the district covered by the branch, on Saturday night, May 16. The evening will take the form of a smoking concert, with short speeches on the aims, objects and achievements of the legion and kindred organizations. Several representatives of the city branches have been invited to attend, and while speeches will be cut to a minimum, the gathering will be enlivened on all angles of the legion's work.

The smoker, which will be held in the Prince Edward branch clubhouse on the Island Highway, near Langford Lake, will be free to all the ex-service men in the district, which, besides Langford, embraces Colwood, Matchosin, Albert Head, Rocky Point and East Sooke. Members of the branch may take along a guest, not necessarily ex-service, for a small charge. All ex-service men proposing to attend are requested to apply to Comrade E. R. Johnson, Matchosin, or Comrade A. O. Mackie, Langford, for tickets.

The confirmation class will be followed by evensong in St. Matthew's Church at 7.15 o'clock on Friday evening.

The Langford district Girl Guides will meet on Saturday at 2 o'clock at Langford Lakeside.

Tea will be served on the Tennis Club grounds on Saturday afternoon. Visitors will be welcomed.

The Langford District Girl Guides are requested to meet at "Ewalika," Florence Lake Road, the home of Miss L. M. A. Savory, owing to the Langford Lakeside Hall being redecorated on Saturday at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. M. Florence, Quadra Street, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Smedley, Goldstream Road.

Keith Russell Brown of Winona Lodge, attending the B.C. University, has passed his second year science course with second class honors.

Funeral of Late Mrs. A. W. Drake On Salt Spring

Special to The Times

Ganges, May 8.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Arthur W. Drake took place on Wednesday afternoon, the service being held in the United Church at Ganges, with Rev. Wm. Allen officiating.

Interment took place in the Central Settlement Cemetery. Masses of floral tributes covered the casket and the steps of the church. The hymns, "There's a Wideness in God's Mercy" and "Peace, Perfect Peace," were sung.

Island Featured In B.C. Issue Of Oregon Magazine

Cordial appreciation is voiced by officials of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau at the extensive publicity given British Columbia in the widely circulated Oregon Motorist, published by the Oregon State Motor Association.

Vancouver Island comes in for its fair share of mention, both in pictures and articles. The Parliament Buildings, the Empress Hotel, the inner harbor and the snow-capped Olympics in the background make one excellent picture. There are others of Saanich Arm and the Malahat. Qualicum Beach and other Island resorts are mentioned in a story of the Pacific Northwest. The feeling of traveling in foreign ports is emphasized in the reference to Victoria.

The early history and romance of British Columbia, and the colorful days of the gold rushes are dealt with at length, and there are many views of the historic Cariboo Road. An article is contributed by Ernest McGaffey, entitled "From Midnight Sun to Southern Cross," and is profusely illustrated with pictures taken on the recent tourist caravan.

An article by Premier Tolmie, "An Invitation to Visit British Columbia," leads the issue.

New B.C. Companies Get Incorporation

Incorporations to do business in British Columbia granted at the Parliament Buildings for the week are:

Cloverdale Farmers' Exchange Ltd., $10,000, Cloverdale.

Hepburn Scores Ontario Cabinet's Power Activities

Alexandria, Ont., May 8.—Need for further development of Ontario's power sites "after Queen's Park has been cleaned out" was stressed by M. P. Hepburn, M.P., Ontario Liberal leader, when he addressed a meeting of 500 Glengarry Liberals yesterday evening.

"We are developing only thirty-six per cent of our hydro power possibilities," he said, "but until we clean out Queen's Park I do not see much use developing those sites. The Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario has become nothing but a party adjunct for the Conservative Government."

Turning to Dominion affairs and the last Imperial Conference, Mr. Hepburn said Canada's trade was falling off daily because "Premier R. B. Bennett went over to England and shook his fist under the noses of the British consumers."

Cecily Bastin Is Hurt Playing On Swings at School

Special to The Times

Mount Newton, May 8.—Miss Cecily Bastin, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. S. A. Bastin, Mount Newton, met with an accident on Monday afternoon while playing on the swings at school. Falling with great force on to the concrete beneath, she sustained severe bruises and it was feared internal injuries. She was rushed to the Jubilee Hospital, where she is still a patient.

Brentwood

The West Saanich Women's Institute will hold their guest day on Tuesday, May 11, at the Institute Hall, Brentwood. The regular meeting will commence at 2.30 p.m. and a short programme will follow the business meeting, after which tea will be served. Members are asked to each bring a guest, and visitors from neighboring institutes will be welcome.

Mrs. Watson has returned to her home in Esquimalt after spending a few days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Atkins, Marchant's Road.

Metchosin

Special to The Times

Metchosin, May 8.—Hon. William Atkinson, Minister of Agriculture, has been invited to open the lamb show and sheep shearing contest to be held by the Metchosin Sheep Breeders' Association at Metchosin on June 3 at 1.30 p.m.

T. K. Harrop of Saanich will judge the lamb classes. Arthur Morton, Dominion livestock commissioner, and Dr. A. Knight, chief veterinarian of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, will judge the shearing contests.

Mr. Mutton of F. Burns and Company will demonstrate the cutting up of the lamb carcass and Mr. McPherson will act as auctioneer. A record number of entries are expected. Many good prizes have been given, exceeding by far those of previous years.
